

+/- Native Invasive

Mugwort

Artemisia douglasiana

- Leafy shrub growing from central base
- Leaves: dark green on top, light green bottom, multiple tips like fingers on a hand
- Native invasive species, spreads by underground roots

+ Native

California Rose

Rosa californica

- Bush: thorny stem
- Leaves: serrated, small-medium sized, rounded
- Flowers: white and pink, 5 petals, have rose hips after bloom
- Spreads around parent bushes

+ Native

Sticky Monkeyflower

Mimulus aurantiacus

- Shrub-like wildflower
- Leaves: dark green, STICKY, slender with central vein
- Flower: pale orange "trumpet," tubular, Mar-Aug
- Pairs of leaves opposite to each other alternate by 90 degrees each set

+ Native of Channel Islands

Catalina Cherry

Prunus ilicifolia ssp. lyonii

- Tree: central trunk with branches
- Flowers: small, white, Apr-June
- Leaves: yellow-green, shiny, waxy, looks like "camellia" bush
- Berries: fleshy drupe, black sweet pulp