

- Native Invasive

Horseweed

Conyza canadensis

- Single round stem (slightly square)
- Leaves: many limp, thin green blades, star formation at top of branches, 2 large leaves with 4 small leaves growing at right angles
- Flowers: small, pale pink

+ Native

California Buckwheat

Eriogonum fasciculatum

- Shrub: tentacle-like leaf-covered long branches
- Flower: pinkish to white 5-armed canopies projected from the tops of stems above shrub
- Leaves: green and yellow, many short blades clustered on stem

+ Native

St. Catherine's Lace

Erigeron giganteum

- Shrub: leaves at base, large forked branches bearing blooms
- Leaves: ash green, white underneath, FUZZY, ovate
- Flower: bunches of tiny oyster white, lacy flower heads

+ Native

Penstemon

Penstemon

- Wildflower: red stem
- Leaves: green, long blades
- Flower: purple, bell-shaped with two white "fangs" striped inside, Mar-June
- Dies back in summer