PAYMENT POLICIES

Students assume responsibility for all costs incurred as a result of enrolling at Santa Clara University. It is the student’s responsibility to be aware of his/her account balance and financial aid information, and to maintain current valid address information at all times to ensure receipt of all University correspondence in a timely manner.

PAYMENT DEADLINES

Electronic bills are generated and made available on eCampus by the first business day of each month and have a due date of the 21st. We encourage students and their Authorized Users to review the billing statement each month for any new activity. Students with unpaid billed charges will be assessed a $100 late fee for every month the balance remains unpaid. You can find further information on term deadlines at: (http://scu.edu/bursar/payment/Tuition-Deadline.cfm).

PAYMENT AND REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS

- All student account balances must be paid in full before students are allowed to enroll in any future term, regardless of the billing due date reflected on the most current statement.
- Students that do not enroll during the registration appointment period for the term in question, may be subject to pre-pay for any new enrollment for that term/semester.
- If a student’s account has a past due balance exceeding $5,000 at the time of registration for the next term, the student/payer may be required to pay the balance with guaranteed funds*.
- If a student has two or more returned checks within a calendar year, the student/payer will be required to pre-pay in guaranteed funds* for a minimum of three consecutive terms.

*Guaranteed funds are cash, cashier’s check, money order, or wire transfer.

PAYMENT IN EXCESS OF TUITION/FEE CHARGES

Any payment received on a student’s account, exceeding the account balance or anticipated charges, will be held on the account and applied toward future term charges. Students have the option to apply a maximum of $500 per term on their Access Card which be charged to their student account and offset all or a portion of the credit balance on the account.

LATE PAYMENTS

Accounts remaining unpaid by each month’s payment deadline are subject to a late payment fee. Any financial aid funds that have not yet been accepted by the student, have incomplete documentation or not appearing as anticipated aid on the student’s account are also subject to late fees. Make sure to apply and complete all aid required documentation well in advance of the initial payment deadlines for each term/semester.

* All accounts must be paid in full in order for students to enroll in succeeding terms or to receive copies of certificates, diplomas, and transcripts.

* As may be permitted by law, all institutional services, including the issuance of an official transcript, will be withheld from students, or former students, who have been notified, in writing, at the student’s or former student’s last known address, that he or she is in default on a loan or loans made for attendance at an institution of higher education, or that they have outstanding financial obligations due the University.

* The University reserves the right to recover all costs related to the collection of delinquent accounts. In addition, delinquent accounts will accrue interest at the maximum legal rate once placed in a collection status.

* The University reserves the right to cancel the registration of any student if a balance due from a previous term remains unpaid at the start of a subsequent term.
