The Certified Equity Professional Institute at Santa Clara University and the Silicon Valley Chapter of the NASPP announce the 11th Annual CEPI and Silicon Valley NASPP Symposium, March 24, 2015. According to Dee Crosby, Executive Director of the CEPI, “Combining the CEPI Symposium and the Silicon Valley NASPP All Day into one event creates an exceptional opportunity for our attendees and our sponsors.” The event will take place at Santa Clara University. Speaking proposals are currently being accepted for this event. Visit cepi.scu.edu or Naspp.com/SiliconValley for additional details.

The Certified Equity Professional Institute (CEPI) was founded in 1989 by a group of equity compensation professionals. Their mission was to establish, promote, and provide certification and continuing education for the equity compensation industry. Since its founding, the CEPI's self study curriculum has served as the industry's educational standard. The CEP designation is the only internationally recognized designation for equity compensation professionals.

The National Association of Stock Plan Professionals (NASPP) is the premier membership association for stock plan professionals, providing services to enrich its member’s professional skills and knowledge and enhance the stock plan profession. The Silicon Valley Chapter of the NASPP provides key education and networking opportunities for members in the local area through its chapter meetings.
