

HEROES, DRAGONS, DEMONS:

The Adventures of Amir Hamza and the Islamic Storytelling Tradition

A presentation by
MUSHARRAF ALI FAROOQI

Santa Clara University, Benson Parlors

(First floor, Benson Center)

4 pm, Monday, May 19, 2008

Novelist, scholar, and children's storyteller Musharraf Ali Farooqi is the translator of The Adventures of Amir Hamza, an epic tale of monsters, magicians, and warriors from the time of Moghul India. Reviewers praise this tale for its "unique insight into a lost Indo-Islamic courtly world" (The New York Times).

Copies of The Adventures of Amir Hamza may be purchased from local bookstores or via amazon.com and then brought to the lecture for Mr. Farooqi to sign.

This event is sponsored by:

The Interdisciplinary Program in Arabic, Islamic,
& Middle Eastern Studies

The Interdisciplinary Program in Medieval & Renaissance Studies

The Department of Religious Studies

The Department of English

The Department of History

For information on this event please contact
Prof. D. Pinault : dpinault@scu.edu

If you have a disability and require a reasonable accommodation, please contact the College of Arts & Sciences at 408-554-4455
at least 24 hours prior to the event.

