

Santa Clara University 36th Annual Western Departments of Sociology and Anthropology Undergraduate Research Conference

Santa Clara University is a Catholic, Jesuit university located in the heart of Silicon Valley, with 4,400 undergraduate and 3,300 graduate students.

California's oldest institution of higher education, SCU celebrates its 150th anniversary in the 2000-01 academic year.

Home to the Mission Santa Clara de Asis, the university offers a rigorous undergraduate curriculum and nationally recognized graduate and professional schools. For the 11th consecutive year, it has been ranked second among all regional universities in the West by U.S. News & World Report.

April 4, 2009

CALL FOR PAPERS

PROGRAM

Undergraduates will present original research and ideas in a conference format.

PURPOSE

To promote and recognize original research at the undergraduate level in Anthropology and Sociology. To facilitate communication and professional exchange among students and faculty from colleges and universities throughout the Western United States.

REGISTRATION FEE

There will be a $30.00 registration fee for: a) all students whose papers are accepted for presentation, b) all session chairs, and c) any visitors wishing to attend the luncheon.

TYPE OF PAPERS

Empirical, theoretical, and review papers are invited. Submit a complete paper or an abstract of at least one page in length, with a completed ABSTRACT FORM located on the conference website (<http://www.scu.edu/cas/sociology>) under FORMS by FEBRUARY 4, 2009.

CONTACT

Sandra Chiamonte, Senior Administrative Assistant/Office Manager schiamonte@scu.edu

Obtain necessary information and forms from the conference web site.

<http://www.scu.edu/cas/sociology>

If you have a disability and require a reasonable accommodation, please call Sandee Chiamonte at 408/554-2794 or California Relay at 800/735-2929 (TTY) 96 hours prior to the event.

PLEASE POST