

Love Your Enemies

Transforming Us vs Them Thinking

Who: Fr. Louie Vitale, OFM
When: Tuesday, October 14,
7:30 p.m.
Where: California Mission Room

Sponsored by Campus Ministry's Santa Clarans for Social Justice, The Ignatian Center for Jesuit Education, the Markkula Center for Applied Ethics, the Political Science Department, the Religious Studies Department, and The Center for Social Justice and Public Service

A co-founder of Pace e Bene Nonviolence Service, Fr. Louie Vitale is currently the organization's Nonviolent Action Advocate. Ordained in 1963 as a Franciscan priest, Fr. Vitale has devoted his life to peace, working tirelessly for the dignity and well-being of people everywhere. With a background in sociology and a focus on the Sociology of Religion and social movements, Louie is a long time social activist. He is the co-founder of the Nevada Desert Experience and has participated in its enduring movement to end nuclear testing. He recently completed twelve years as the pastor of St. Boniface Catholic Church in a low-income neighborhood in San Francisco, California.

In compliance with the ADA/504 please direct your accommodation requests to: Peggy Tritto at 408-554-4372 at least 72 hours prior to the event.

The presence of a guest speaker on the campus of SCU does not necessarily imply approval or endorsement by the University of the views expressed by the guest speaker or by anyone else present at the event