Execution of Justice

By Emily Mann
Directed by Barbara M. Fraser
Louis B. Mayer Theatre, Nov. 7-15, 2008

Deftly recounting the 1978 assassination of San Francisco Mayor George Moscone and City Supervisor Harvey Milk (America's first openly gay, elected official), Mann examines the conflicting social and political ideals and courtroom ethics (such as the infamous "Twinkie defense") that led to one of history's most shocking verdicts.

Over the Mountain –Workshop Production

By Brian Thorstenson
Directed by Rayelle Myrick Hodges
Louis B. Mayer Theatre, Feb. 27-Mar. 7, 2009

A battle rages. Neighbors disappear. Nothing is sacred.... Set in an oddly familiar totalitarian state, this poetic play explores a world where two sisters, separated by a mountain, make choices that threaten to sever them forever as they face the severities of war. This fully staged, workshop production will have its World Premiere at Brava! for Women in the Arts in San Francisco, April 2009.

Twelfth Night

By William Shakespeare
Directed by Fred Tollini, SJ
Louis B. Mayer Theatre, May 29 -Jun. 6, 2009

Shipwrecked on the shore of Illyria, Viola must disguise herself as the male Cesario in order to find employment with Duke Orsino. But when Olivia, whom Orsino tries to woo, instead falls for Cesario—and Viola for the duke—a mad love triangle ensues! Still, Viola hopes all will be well for, "Tempests are kind and salt waves fresh in love."

Images 2009 a dance concert

Louis B. Mayer Theatre, February 5-8, 2009

This stunning production of original jazz, modern, and classical ballet features the choreography of SCU dance faculty Karyn Lee Connell, Kristin Kusanovich, and David Popalisky, and select student choreography.

Songs for a New World

By Jason Robert Brown
Directed by Kimberly Mohne Hill
Fess Parker Studio Theatre, May 8-16, 2009

It's about one moment—the moment you get what you want, the moment you realize you'll never be the same again, the moments we remember the most. This enchanting musical review captures characters on the cusp of that "one moment", masterfully transporting audiences and enveloping raw emotion in soulful, effervescent song.
