Subscription Agreement:

Catalán Family Farm commits to doing its best to grow a variety of crops. Boxes will be delivered to campus and available in the Sobrato Hall lobby every other Wednesday. They generally arrive between 3:00 PM and 5:30 PM. Subscribers must pick up their box by the following Thursday afternoon or it will be donated.

I understand that there is no guarantee as to the exact amount of produce I will receive. I understand that the vegetable varieties change due to changes in the weather and pest outbreaks. It is my responsibility to pick up my share unless another arrangement is made. If I am unable to pick up a box, I agree to provide notification by Monday before 3 PM the week of delivery to 554-6917, and I will receive credit for another week.

Although the Arrupe Partnerships at Santa Clara University supports this program and agrees to coordinate its activities, I also understand that the University shall not be liable to the participants for any damages or dissatisfaction. As a participant, I acknowledge this disclaimer by signing below and waive all claims against Santa Clara University.

Payment/Pricing Information:

The intent behind CSA is for subscribers to pay in advance which provides funds early in the season to the farmer to buy needed materials before the crops come in. If you've tried the CSA in the past and know you want to receive boxes for several weeks during the season, we highly encourage you to pay now for several weeks, which include the incentive of a discount. The discount only applies to orders pre-paid during February.

Regular price: $24 for a single box or up to 9 boxes

Make Checks Payable to María Inés Catalán. Please pay for more than one week if you are ordering for multiple weeks. Send or deliver checks to the Ignatian Center (CSA) in Sobrato Hall Room 30.
