

BE A PART OF JST-SCU VIBRANT COMMUNITY

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

The rapidly changing face of the Church of the XXI century requires leaders who are eager to work with different cultures. Each year, women and men from all over the world come to JST-SCU ready to draw on the wisdom of each other's experience as well as our heritage of scholarship.

WORSHIP COMMUNITY

Theological studies and preparation for ministry engage the whole person. We believe that this engagement is enriched when it takes place in a faith community of mutual support. We offer our students spiritual direction, retreats, liturgy, prayer, faith sharing, lay formation and student groups.

FINANCIAL AWARDS

To assist students in meeting their academic goals, JST-SCU offers tuition grants and special scholarships.

HOUSING

The school offers housing facilities for students. These include apartment units and lay community houses.

JESUIT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY
OF SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY

NEW DIRECTIONS SABBATICAL PROGRAM

This program offers a unique opportunity for men and women, priests, religious, and laity who desire to integrate and deepen their spirituality in order to prepare for the next phase of their lives. The heart of the sabbatical program is to offer the participants a place to balance personal reflection, relaxation and renewal, as well as the opportunity to update theological and spiritual knowledge.

NEW DIRECTIONS HIGHLIGHTS

- Participants choose from hundreds of courses available through JST-SCU and the Graduate Theological Union.
- Designed to offer a remarkable opportunity to discern and articulate new directions for professional ministry and personal development.
- Limited to 25 participants, an adequate number for interpersonal sharing as well as diversity.
- Many of the New Directions participants come from countries outside the United States. Students from forty different countries attend JST-SCU. One's outlook is immensely enriched and broadened in this culturally rich environment.
- New Directions aims for a holistic sabbatical experience: spiritual, social, physical, and intellectual.

A PERSONALIZED PROGRAM

Includes:

- Faith Sharing Groups
- Retreats
- Spiritual Direction
- Vibrant Worship Community
