

Nomination Form for 2010 Inclusive Excellence Awards
University Council on Inclusive Excellence

Nominations are due in the Provost's office (204 Walsh Administration) by Monday, May 3, 2010

People or groups may be nominated by a staff or faculty member, another student, or themselves.

Choose only one of the following categories for each nominating form submitted.

- Inclusive Excellence Award for students or student organization
- Inclusive Excellence Award for faculty/staff or department

Description of Awards

Inclusive Excellence Award for Students

Awarded to a current student or student organization that has demonstrated a commitment to enhancing an inclusive environment at SCU. Current students or student organizations providing leadership in programming, training, or other experiences related to the University Council's vision for achieving excellence through inclusion in the SCU community are eligible for this award.

Inclusive Excellence Award for Staff/Faculty

Awarded to a current SCU staff or faculty member or a department that demonstrates dedication to innovative teaching and/or program development beyond his/her job responsibilities (or the department's mission) to encourage excellence through inclusion in the SCU community.

Nominations Must Include:

- 1) this nomination form
- 2) a nominating letter that details why the nominee should be considered for the award and how the person or organization meets the qualifications; nominators should provide sufficient detail to ensure the Council's ability to recognize the individual's or group's accomplishments.

Optional: Any supporting documentation or up to three letters of support that would aid the Council in its decision-making.
