Professional History

October 2006-present Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs, Santa Clara University. Professor of Psychology and Professor of Counseling Psychology

As Provost and chief academic officer, I am responsible for all educational programs and offerings of the University, as well as academic policies, faculty affairs and personnel matters, and student life issues. The Provost provides leadership to the Deans, Vice Provosts, Chief Information Officer, and Director of Athletics and Recreation to ensure that the educational programs and offerings are consistent with the University's vision, mission, and values. The Provost has primary responsibility for the efforts to advance the two core strategic initiatives of the University outlined in its Strategic Plan: Building a Community of Scholars whose members collaborate as partners in learning and scholarship, and Providing an Integrated Education that will foster the education of the whole person and enable students to make connections among different forms of knowledge, understanding, and experience.

1999-2006 Vice Provost for Undergraduate Studies and University Executive Officer and Professor, University of Texas at Austin

As Vice Provost, I was responsible for developing and directing several new initiatives. These include: (a) the development of Connexus: Connections in Undergraduate Studies and its many programs including the Longhorn Scholars Program, the Bridging Disciplines Programs, EUREKA: Enhancing Undergraduate Research, Experience, Knowledge Access; the Cross-Cultural Compass; and the Maymester Abroad Program (see www.utexas.edu/student/connexus/ and www.utexas.edu/research/eureka/) (b) a Campus-wide study on the Status of Women Faculty and programs to improve the climate for women in the sciences and engineering; and (c) facilitating cross-college international study at UT (see www.utexas.edu/internationalstudy/)

2000-2006 Director, Connexus: Connections in Undergraduate Studies, an Initiative of the Provost's Office, UT Austin

2002-2006 Frank C. Erwin, Jr. Centennial Honors Professor
