

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY
SUMMARY OF APPOINTMENT POLICIES AND PROCEDURES
VISITING, ADJUNCT, & OTHER SPECIAL
FACULTY APPOINTMENTS<sup>1</sup> (LAW)

Visiting appointments are held by persons on leave from other professional employment as defined in Section 3.1.3.3 of the Faculty Handbook.

Adjunct faculty (Adjunct Professorships, Adjunct Associate Professorships, and Assistant Professorships) meet the ordinary qualifications for the respective regular appointments or equivalent practical experience as defined in Section 3.1.3.4 of the Faculty Handbook.

Special appointments are held by distinguished artists, scholars, scientists, engineers, executives, statespersons and others who may be granted appointments-in-residence as described in Section 3.1.3.5 of the Faculty Handbook.

1. Visiting, adjunct, and other special faculty appointments are appointed in accordance with the following practices:
  - The appointment may be for the academic year (i.e., nine months) or some portion thereof and in no case for more than three years.
  - The FTE for adjunct faculty is calculated on the basis of a full-time equivalent course load of six courses (e.g., 3 courses, 0.50 FTE; 4 courses, 0.67 FTE; 5 courses, 0.83 FTE) for a fixed term of not more than three years.
  - Letters of appointment are issued from the Office of the Provost and signed by the Provost in accordance with applicable appointment procedures. See section 3.2.3 of the Faculty Handbook.
  - Eligibility for benefits is in accordance with the terms of the appointment, section 3.8.2 of the Faculty Handbook, and other applicable University policies and procedures. Note regarding faculty on visiting appointments: Benefits for faculty on visiting appointments are subject to the contract limitations, and benefits covered by a home institution may be reimbursed by the Law School.
  - The annual salary is paid in 24 equal semi-monthly installments beginning August 16 and ending the following August 15. The salary associated with an appointment for only a portion of the academic year is paid in equal semi-monthly installments consistent with the term of the appointment.
  - At the Dean's discretion, adjunct faculty (Adjunct Professor, Adjunct Associate Professor, and Adjunct Assistant Professor) may be allowed to use the corresponding working title of Visiting Professor, Visiting Associate Professor and Visiting Assistant Professor, however, the title of University record and the benefits assigned to the position shall be in accordance with Section 3.1.3.4 of the Faculty Handbook.

---

<sup>1</sup> This document paraphrases the relevant sections of the Faculty Handbook. Please refer to the Faculty Handbook for the complete explanation of the policies.

2. Visiting, adjunct, and other special faculty appointments are also subject to the following policies and procedures:
  - Termination of Employment – Section 3.5 of the Faculty Handbook. Policies and procedures pertaining to the termination of employment of faculty include:
    - Resignation – Section 3.5.2 of the Faculty Handbook. A faculty member who decides to resign from the University for any reason is obligated to notify the University immediately.
    - Non-Reappointment – Section 3.5.3 of the Faculty Handbook. The University makes visiting, adjunct, and other special faculty appointments with no expectation of reappointment in accordance with the conditions indicated in Section 3.5.3.3 of the Faculty Handbook.
  - Medical and Family Leaves of Absence. Faculty are eligible for medical and family leaves of absence in accordance with applicable state and federal regulations, section 3.8.2.1 of the Faculty Handbook, and section 600 of the Staff Policy Manual.
  - Bereavement Leaves. A faculty member may take five days of paid bereavement leave in the case of death of a spouse or person who stands in substantially the same relationship, son, daughter, child's other parent, father, mother, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandchild, grandparents, or anyone with whom the employee has an in loco parentis relationship. This leave is granted for attending funerals and memorial services and for discharging responsibilities related to the death of the family member. Days of leave may be taken consecutively or split as needed. If additional time off is needed, additional time off without pay must be recommended by the Dean and is subject to the approval of the Provost.
  - Assignments in School or University Administration or Programs (Adjunct Faculty Appointments Only). Adjunct faculty who accept an assignment in school or University administration or programs generally receive a reduction in the standard teaching load for the academic year and may also receive supplemental pay for summer work. The responsible dean, vice provost or center director issues a letter to the faculty member confirming the terms of the appointment.
  - Assignments involving External Grants. Faculty may “buy out” one or more courses from external grants on the basis of an agreed upon percentage of their base salary if their grant proposal has been approved by the Dean and Senior Vice Provost.

- Appointments in Summer Session. Faculty with visiting, adjunct, and other special faculty appointments teaching summer session courses are issued a separate quarterly part-time letter of appointment by the Dean covering the teaching assignment in the summer and the related compensation.