

FINAL EXAM POLICY

A cumulative final exam, if given, must be given on the date and time scheduled by the Registrar's Office. If designed as a take-home exam, it may not be due before the scheduled final exam time. Exceptions to this policy require permission from the Chair of the Department, who may consult with the Dean's Office.

This has been University policy since 1986. It was reiterated by the Academic Affairs Committee on October 18, 1993 and revised by the Academic Affairs Committee, May 20, 2005, and accepted by the Provost.
