

Faculty Core Committee Responsibilities

Faculty Core Committees are responsible for

- supporting curriculum development for the Core area
- reviewing proposals for syllabus approval
- reporting results of the reviews to the Office of Undergraduate Studies
 - provide recommendations for revise & resubmits
 - provide rationale for rejections
- working with the Office of Assessment as needed:
 - provide disciplinary expertise for the Director of Assessment as she develops scoring rubrics and/or surveys related to learning in the Core area
 - reflect and comment on assessment reports related to student learning in the Core area.
- reviewing proposals for curriculum development honoraria