

SCU SUMMER PROGRAMS

STUDENT AGREEMENT

Acceptance into and registration for the program involved will NOT be complete until you have read and signed off on the Petition to Study Abroad form indicating that you have read and agreed to the terms below. Please print this document for your file.

This is an agreement between Santa Clara University (the UNIVERSITY) and the Study Abroad Applicant (the STUDENT) in respect to participation in the University's Summer Programs.

I. SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY SHALL

1. Process applications in accordance with Santa Clara University policies and regulations.
2. Offer academic courses and official related activities and excursions.
3. Provide lodging and meals (if included) to participating student throughout duration of the program.
4. Retain the right to cancel courses or to change the academic format of the courses at its discretion where student interest, availability of adequate facility or resources, or other relevant criteria indicate that such cancellation or change may be appropriate.

II. THE STUDENT SHALL

1. Apply to SCU Summer Session Abroad through the International Programs office at Santa Clara University and certify that they are a student in good standing.
2. Accept the full responsibility for reading and understanding SCU Summer Session Abroad documents concerning program content, policies, and procedures and agree to extend her/his best efforts to successfully complete academic requirements.
3. Abide by all conduct rules of SCU Summer Session Abroad, Santa Clara University, and in the event of an alleged violation of such rules, be subject to the discipline of Santa Clara University, including the termination of the STUDENT from the program.
4. Understand and agree that Santa Clara University is not responsible and shall accept no liability for any activity other than those defined in Section I above, including but not limited to personal travel and activities.

5. Understand and agree that the STUDENT is responsible for the cost of any expense associated with actions that become necessary in the event of an emergency, including but not limited to the cost of returning to the U.S.
6. Pay all fees (which include tuition, room and board, organized field trips, and other fees assessed by SCU Summer Session Abroad).
7. Obtain a passport, official evidence of inoculations as required, and consult with the Center for Disease Control or U.S. Department of State for current vaccination and travel information about the country of destination.
8. Understand and agree that in the event that Santa Clara University determines, after informing STUDENT of an alleged violation and discussing it with her or him, that the STUDENT has violated a student conduct regulation, Santa Clara University may terminate the STUDENT from the program.
9. In consideration of the permission granted to the STUDENT, release and discharge Santa Clara University, including their officers and employees from all liability, as defined herein, arising out of, or in connection with the STUDENT'S participation in the above described activity. For the purposes of this agreement, liability means all claims, demands, losses, causes of action, suits, or judgements of any and every kind that the STUDENT or STUDENT'S heirs, executors, administrators, or assignees may have against Santa Clara University or that any other person or entity may have against Santa Clara University because of death, personal injury or illness, or because of any loss of or damage to property, that occurs during the above described activity and that results from any cause other than the negligence of Santa Clara University.
10. Further agree to hold harmless, defend and indemnify Santa Clara University from any and all liability, as defined above, resulting from, or in any manner arising out of or in connection with the STUDENT'S participation in the above described activity, but not to extend that such liability is due to the sole negligence or willful misconduct of Santa Clara University.
11. Certify that he/she understands that there are inherent risks in any travel and that travel to a foreign country entails the specific risks of travel accident, acts of war, civil unrest, natural disasters, public health risks, terrorism, criminal acts, foreign laws and practices, foreign language and other risks associated with any international travel. The STUDENT further certifies that she/he acknowledges that they are freely engaging in an international educational activity and that said activity is in no way a requirement of any UNIVERSITY academic program. The STUDENT accepts full responsibility for the decision to undertake and, if necessary, terminate a study abroad program.
12. Acknowledge that there are specific health and safety risks in traveling. The STUDENT will accept and uphold specific policies and procedures as deemed necessary by program directors with regards to health, safety, and travel.
13. Certify that s/he understands that programs or courses may be cancelled for insufficient enrollment or any other cause deemed sufficient by the program operators.
14. Agree, at STUDENT'S expense, to procure and maintain during the course of the program, medical insurance to cover the risks assumed in this activity, including but not limited to worldwide coverage.

15. Be responsible for personally obtaining any travel advisory or warning from the United States Department of State and Center for Disease Control and otherwise inform themselves of potential health and safety risks at the site of intended study.

III. GENERAL PROVISIONS

1. This agreement is subject to all applicable laws and regulations. If performance of this agreement involves violation of applicable law or regulation thereby making it legally impossible to perform and such illegality is not the fault of STUDENT, Santa Clara University shall refund to STUDENT all fees paid pursuant to this Agreement and upon payment of said refund, all rights of Santa Clara University and STUDENT are expressly waived.
2. This Agreement contains the sole and entire agreement between Santa Clara University and STUDENT and shall supersede any and all other agreements between the parties. Santa Clara University and STUDENT acknowledge and agree that any statements or representations that may heretofore have been made by either of them to the other are void and of no effect and that neither of them has relied thereon in connection with her or his or its dealings with the other.

By signing on the appropriate section of the Petition to Study Abroad document, I hereby certify that I have read, understand, and willing to abide by the terms described in this agreement.
