Welcome to Santa Clara University!

This Bronco Book serves as a resource guide with information you may find useful during Welcome Weekend and into the academic year. The book is segmented into chapters. The name of each chapter may be found in the inset tabs on the outer margin of each page. Please see the Table of Contents to see the list of chapters and sections per chapter including page numbers. It is important to keep in mind that this book is not meant to be a comprehensive guide to all campus departments and resources at SCU. If you are seeking a certain department or information that is not found in this book, let us know and we can point you in the right direction!

As you participate in Welcome Weekend, our student team of Orientation Leaders (OLs) is excited and willing to help answer your questions and connect you with resources and information. Most importantly, though, our OLs will provide you with a warm and genuine welcome to the SCU community and help facilitate your family’s transition to the university. If there are any questions that the OLs are not able to address, please contact one of us or have an OL direct you to us and we will do our best to ensure your needs, interests, and concerns are met.

After your Orientation session is over, you may contact us at any time at orientation@scu.edu or 408-551-1995. If you would like to speak with professional staff, our personal email addresses are listed below in the signature.

On behalf of the entire Orientation staff, welcome! We are happy you are here!

Sincerely,

SCU Orientation Team

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY’S OHLONE HISTORY

Long before the arrival of the first Europeans, the Bay Area was home to a large native population for thousands of years divided into over 40 tribal settlements: the Tamien, Chochenyo, Matalan, Sagan, Ohlone, and many others. Today, many descendants call themselves Ohlone, however this term is not used by all Native communities whose ancestral territory is within the greater Bay Area.

Following their 1769 encounter with Spanish explorers, life changed drastically for the Ohlone. The Alta California Missions were established and run by Spanish padres (Franciscan Missionaries) who sought to convert Native communities to Catholicism, assimilate them into European culture, and exploit their labor. Due to labor demands, disease, and unsanitary and crowded conditions, the Indigenous community at Mission Santa Clara faced poor health and high death rates.

Although pockets of resistance existed, the Ohlone’s way of life, identity, and world view were forever changed by colonization and missionization. However, the Ohlone people did not disappear. Numerous family groups have reclaimed their heritage (working to revitalize language, dance, food, and more) and are seeking Federal recognition in our time.

Land Acknowledgement Statement

“We pause to acknowledge that Santa Clara University sits on the land of the Ohlone people, who trace their ancestry through the Missions Dolores, Santa Clara, and San Jose. We remember their connection to this region and give thanks for the opportunity to live, work, learn, and pray on their traditional homeland. Let us take a moment of silence to pay respect to their Elders and to all Ohlone people, past and present.”

Current and Ongoing Initiatives

Like the land acknowledgement, our increased attention to and programming about Ohlone and other Native American cultures is a collaborative and multivoiced effort. As we embark on the 2022-2023 academic year, we want to provide an update on recent and current initiatives with the Ohlone and Muwekma Ohlone:

In 2019, the President appointed an Ohlone History Working group. This group consisted of both SCU faculty, staff, students and Ohlone representatives. It was charged with:

- Reviewing the current markers and monuments that honor the history of the Ohlone people on campus and particularly the history of the Mission Santa Clara de Asis de Tamien;
- Consulting with Ohlone representatives about their views on the most appropriate ways to honor their ancestors;
- Consult/review commemorations of Native Peoples at other California Missions; and
- Draft recommendations based on investigations and consultations.

This group completed its report in late 2020 during the pandemic and efforts underway to address the recommendations. Lauren Baines from the de Saisset Museum and Ray Plaza from the Office for Diversity and Inclusion are the co-coordinators of the Ohlone implementation effort.

In addition, the first SCU Powwow was held in May 2019, and was postponed in 2020,2021 due to the pandemic. The 2nd Powwow was held in April 2022 and efforts underway for the annual effort to take place in May 2023.

There are opportunities to get involved with the Native American Coalition for Change (NACC), which formed in late 2015.

As an institution we are committed to better educating all of our stakeholders (students, faculty, staff, alumni) about SCU’s Indigenous legacy and engagement. In addition, SCU is committed to being a partner with the Ohlone and Muwekma Ohlone.

The HUB Writing Center is a resource for anyone at SCU. We assist undergraduates, graduate students, faculty, and staff who are working on writing and public speaking projects.

Our main goal is to help writers develop as writers. This means we can help you refine your ideas, analysis, organization, and more. You can even come in just to brainstorm about a topic and your plans for an assignment.

The HUB is there to help you, so we will not take your paper from you and make changes or edit your work. If you come in for help with grammar, you can expect more than editing. Our goal is to help you learn what your strengths as a writer are, how you can capitalize on those, and what you can do to communicate your ideas most effectively.

The HUB also offers tutoring for public speaking!

The Mathematics Learning Center (MLC) is a community of mathematical thinkers who connect with each other in order to learn together and achieve their goals. Students learn through individual tutoring and study groups. Tutors and students also have some opportunities to grow and work together during special events throughout the quarter.

Santa Clara University requires all students, enrolled at least half-time in their school or college, to have health insurance. We find some students arrive on campus with a health insurance plan that does not cover them in Santa Clara County. Students may purchase the university sponsored Student Health Insurance Plan. If you have health insurance comparable to the school sponsored plan you may complete the online health insurance waiver form which documents proof of your insurance coverage. Insurance plans need to be fully compliant with the Affordable Care Act (ACA). All F-1 Visa students are required to be enrolled into the school sponsored insurance plan unless they are a dependent on a plan that meets all SCU requirements. The health insurance waiver and benefit requirements as well as deadlines may be found on the Cowell Center Health Insurance webpage.

To waive out of the university sponsored health insurance plan, the Online Waiver Form must be completed with your own insurance information. The health insurance waiver must be completed every academic year. Students wanting to enroll into the school sponsored insurance plan should complete the Online Enrollment Form. Those students not completing the waiver form or enrollment form by the final waiver deadline date will be automatically enrolled into the school sponsored insurance plan.

To access the Online Waiver/Enrollment Form, health insurance waiver, and benefit requirements, and insurance plan information, please go to scu.edu/cowell/insurance. The deadline to submit the Health Insurance Waiver/Enrollment Form is September 23, 2022.

The cost of the university-sponsored health insurance plan is not covered in your student tuition. This charge will show up as a separate item on your student account. Please view the Cowell Center Health Insurance webpage for the annual undergraduate premium rate and additional information.

Students are required to upload a health history and immunization record their file in the Cowell Center | My Student Health Portal through the MySCU Portal. The forms can be found through their MySCU Portal in the Cowell Center | My Student Health application.

If you have any questions, please contact Tammy Oh, Insurance Coordinator, at toh2@scu.edu or 408-554-2379.

AUXILIARY SERVICES: HOUSING

Undergraduate and graduate students have the opportunity to live in University housing either on or near campus. In mid-August, the Housing Office will notify, via eCampus, all undergraduates who have applied to live on campus for the 2022–2023 academic year of their specific room assignment, roommate information, and move-in instructions. Graduate students will be notified via campus email on a rolling basis after they apply.

Packing for SCU

In preparing to move on campus, there are a few things you should think about before packing. Because of the size of the rooms, we encourage you to coordinate with your new roommate to avoid duplication.

Here are a few items students should bring (visit our website for a detailed list):

- Linens: Mattresses in most accommodations are extra-long twin (80 inches) and will require extra-long sheets and bedding. University Villas and St. Clare mattresses require full/double sheets and bedding.
- Towels and toiletries
- Computer
- Smart Power Strips: Power strips must be UL approved. Extension cords are not permitted.

Small microwave ovens, TVs, and refrigerators (up to 4.5 cubic feet and Energy Star rated) are allowed in the halls; however, items with an exposed heating element are not. Refrigerators are already provided in apartment and studio accommodations.

Other students living in accommodations with kitchens may choose a Preferred or Basic Plan or may opt for a Junior/Senior Plan of 1,277 points or an Apartment Plan of 278 points. Your ACCESS credential and your student account are used as payment for using these points via mobile ordering at any on-campus dining venue. The plan points are a quarterly allowance valid until the end of the quarter at which time the plan expires. Any unspent points up to 100 may be carried over from one quarter to the next for the duration of the housing contract. However, at the end of the contract any unspent points are forfeited. Making your purchases with a Resident Dining Plan saves you 9% on sales tax at all campus dining venues.

All law and graduate students living on campus will automatically receive 834 dining points with an annual housing contract. Law students will receive 417 points each semester while graduate students will receive 278 points each quarter.

If you commute to campus or run out of your Resident Dining Plan, you may opt to purchase a Dining Plus Plan. You can create this optional plan with a deposit of any amount any time during the school year. Unspent points are available to use throughout your enrollment until graduation or withdrawal; however, the points are not refundable at any time. Purchasing with a Dining Plus Plan provides you cashless convenience and a 9% savings on sales tax at all campus dining venues.

The ACCESS credential eliminates the need to carry cash and is accepted at all campus dining venues, vending machines, networked printers, laundry machines, and at the campus Bookstore. SCU has contracted with local merchants so your ACCESS credential is also accepted at many restaurants within walking distance of the campus.

Getting Your First ACCESS Credential
Incoming students will be issued a digital ACCESS credential which provides the same great features of your student ID in the convenience of your smartphone. For more details about the digital credential, please visit scu.edu/access/access-mobile-credentials.

New students will be sent an email during the summer with easy instructions to upload both a current passport style photo and a picture of a US government issued photo ID or a passport. It is very important that the image meets requirements or it will delay processing.

For details about credential distribution in September, please visit our website at scu.edu/access for the most up to date information.

ACCESS Credential Accounts
Your ACCESS credential has several financial accounts that can be utilized in a variety of ways. If you are living on campus, you are required to have a Resident Dining Plan. The points from your chosen Resident Dining Plan will be deposited automatically into your account at the start of each quarter during check-in.

There are two optional ACCESS financial accounts that students find useful: the Flex account and the Dining Plus plan. The Flex account is a debit account that can be used both on and off campus for cashless convenience. The Dining Plus plan is a supplemental meal plan primarily, but not exclusively, for commuter students. The chart on the following page highlights the benefits of each account. For a complete list of locations accepting the ACCESS credential both on and off campus, please visit scu.edu/access.

Opening and Managing Debit Plans
A Flex account or Dining Plus plan can be opened with a deposit of any amount. Credit card, cash, and check deposits are accepted at the ACCESS Office. You may also authorize transfers of up to $500 per quarter from your Bursar account to your ACCESS credential accounts. Value Transfer Stations (VTS machines) located in the Benson Memorial Center and the Learning Commons accept instant cash deposits and display plan balances. Instant credit card transfers to ACCESS plans may be made at the Kiosk in the Benson Memorial Center, or via the Online ACCESS Office where you can also monitor balances and view transactions.

Lost Cards and Phones
Lost ACCESS credentials should be suspended immediately by calling the ACCESS Office during business hours. After hours, credentials can be suspended by calling Campus Safety at 408-554-4441 or visiting the Online ACCESS Office. Suspending your physical card or digital credential will protect your debit plans and prohibit improper facility access.

Your initial ACCESS credential is free; however, there is a $20 fee for replacing a lost credential, or changing credential format.
