COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is an introduction to Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Each week students engage a new set of questions about the formation, history, theology, sacrality, politics, as well as issues of authority and gender concerning the "Abrahamic" traditions. Over the course of the quarter, students investigate in a lecture/discussion format the question that our textbook's title raises: What do our neighbors believe? Investigations of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam occurs through primary sacred texts (i.e. TaNaK, Old Testament & New Testament, and Qur'an), secondary readings, lectures, and group presentations. Students are encouraged to develop their understanding of each religion from the standpoint of how that religion sees itself in the world. In the process engaging and investigating the "Abrahamic" traditions students are given the opportunity to question and explore for themselves the role of religion, God, ha-shem, Allah, the deity, the Ultimate in their lives and/or the lives of the world around them.

- Students are required to bring the relevant text books to class every day.
- No prior knowledge or association with the named western religions is necessary for enrollment in this course.

This course satisfies the Religious Studies 1/Religion, Theology, and Culture 1 requirement.

CORE CURRICULUM LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Students in this course will:

- Objective #1 Describe and compare the central religious ideas and practices from several traditions or within one, and from two globally distinct regions. (Students will satisfy this objective through class discussion, quizzes, reflection papers, group presentation, and final paper.)
- Objective #2 - Use critical approaches to reflect upon their own beliefs and the religious dimensions of human existence. (Students will satisfy this objective through class discussion, reflection papers, worship group presentation, self-evaluation, and final paper.)

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- 1. Introduce students to a basic understanding of the central texts, traditions, and practices of Judaism, Christianity and Islam.
- 2. Critically reflect through written, oral, and aural sources upon religious belief and practice as well as what religion discloses about humanity in its quest for the sacred. This will also offer students an opportunity to reflect on (their own) beliefs, religious experiences, and probe how religion functions in their lives and/or in the lives of others.
- 3. Introduce students to central religious ideas and practices of Judaism, Christianity and Islam through weekly attention paid to their sacred writings (TaNaK, Old Testament and New Testament, and Qur'an). This includes an introduction to contextual and comparative interpretive methodologies.
- 4. Explore the diversity within each religion, its sacred texts, and its popular religiosity through written, oral, and aural sources.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

- 1. Ali, Abdullah Yusuf. The Meaning of The Holy Qur'an.
- 2. HarperCollins Study Bible: Student Edition with Apocrypha/Deuterocanonical (New Revised Standard Version [NRSV]), Fully Revised & Updated
- 3. Greenstein, Howard, Kendra Hotz, and John Kaltner. What do our neighbors believe? Questions and Answers on Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. Louisville: Westminster John Knox Press, 2007.
- 4. Messina-Dysert, Gina, Jennifer Zobair, and Amy Levin. Faithfully Feminist: Jewish, Christian, and Muslim Feminists on Why We Stay. Ashland, OR: White Cloud Press. 2015.
- 5. Additional required texts for reading will be posted on Camino.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND ASSESSMENT METHODS:

Class Attendance, Preparation, and Critical Engagement (15%) Fifteen percent of the overall grade for this course is determined by the student's daily: 1) preparation for class (i.e. completion of reading/movie/song assignments for the day; 2) attendance in class; and 3) thoughtful, informed, and/or reflective questions and/or comments about the reading. Satisfies Core Curriculum Objectives #1 & #2.

Quizzes (15%) Students are required to complete three online quizzes posted through the course Camino page. The first quiz will be short and cover the syllabus, policies, and select websites necessary for a successful completion of the course. The remaining two quizzes will serves as a content midterm and final. Each quiz will cover the material prior to the quiz date and are not cumulative. Each quiz will be an assortment of multiple choice, fill in the blank, and True/False, short answer, and matching questions. There are no make-up quizzes. Satisfies Core Curriculum Objective #1.

Reflection Essay Papers (40%) Students are required to type two 2-4 page, single-spaced, 1" margins, Times New Roman, 12 pt font, Turabian/Chicago footnotes, bibliography, thesis statement underlined in the first paragraph, reflection essays during the quarter (opposite of quiz weeks) situating the assigned reading, movies (and/or presentations) within the scope of the week's topic and class lecture/discussion thus far.

Note- Students earning below 70% on the FIRST ESSAY will have an automatic rewrite assigned that necessitates a visit to the HUB WRITING CENTER for assistance. Notification of revision assistance from HUB must be submitted upon resubmission of the essay for resubmission to be graded.

HUB Writing Center → http://www.scu.edu/provost/writingcenter/

• The HUB's Benson 22 location is open Sundays through Thursdays from 4:00-10:00 p.m. and Mondays from 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m. The Learning Commons location is open Sundays through Thursdays from 7:00-10:00 p.m.

Satisfies Core Curriculum Objective #1 & #2.

Expressions of the Sacred Presentation (25%) Students will be assigned to small groups (3-5 person groups) that are responsible for giving a 20 minute group presentation to the class in the second half of the quarter. (The size of the group and the length of the presentation are dependent upon size of the class.) The group will focus their project around a core principle, aspect, ritual, or expression of "the sacred" according to Presentation Guidelines to be given out after the 2 week of the course. Satisfies Core Curriculum Objectives #1 & #2.

Self and Peer Evaluation (5% = 2.5% and 2.5%) Each student will write an evaluation of their own experience of the worship service as well as the participation of the other members of Worship Group Presentation as outlined in the Self and Peer Evaluation Guideline. Satisfies Core Curriculum Objective #2.

ATTENDANCE POLICY:

Regular on-time attendance is a mandatory expectation for passing the course. Excused absences must be requested in advance of the class session to be missed and require approval from the instructor. 3 or more unexcused absences will result in lowering the student's final course grade a full letter grade. 5 or more absences, excused or unexcused, will result in an F final grade for the course.

- ➤ Medical absences or any absence approved through the university need to have appropriate documentation submitted to the Professor.
- Missing more than 10 minutes of class twice will be counted as an unexcused absence.
- > Job interviews are not excused absences.

➤ Professor reserves the right to subsume the Technology Policy into the Attendance Policy. Students may use technology in-class for the course as it is fitting with the session's activities. If an individual has difficulty focusing to the curriculum due to an incongruent use of technology in the room, the student will get a warning. The second violation will result in the student being marked absent for the day.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION POLICY:

If you have a disability for which accommodations may be required in this class, please contact Disabilities Resources, Benson 216, www.scu.edu/disabilities as soon as possible to discuss your needs and register for accommodations with the University. If you have already arranged accommodations through Disabilities Resources, please discuss them with me during my office hours. Students who have medical needs related to pregnancy or parenting may be eligible for accommodations

While I am happy to assist you, I am unable to provide accommodations until I have received verification from Disabilities Resources. The Disabilities Resources office will work with students and faculty to arrange proctored exams for students whose accommodations include double time for exams and/or assisted technology. (Students with approved accommodations of time-and-a-half should talk with me as soon as possible). Disabilities Resources must be contacted in advance to schedule proctored examinations or to arrange other accommodations. The Disabilities Resources office would be grateful for advance notice of at least two weeks. For more information you may contact Disabilities Resources at 408-554-4109.

TITLE IX POLICY:

Santa Clara University upholds a zero tolerance policy for discrimination, harassment and sexual misconduct. If you (or someone you know) have experienced discrimination or harassment, including sexual assault, domestic and dating violence or stalking, we encourage you to tell someone promptly. For more information, please go to www.scu.edu/studentlife and click on the link for the University's Gender-Based Discrimination and Sexual Misconduct Policy or contact the University's EEO and Title IX Coordinator, Belinda Guthrie at 408-554-3043 or by email at bguthrie@scu.edu. Reports may be submitted online through www.scu.edu/osl/report or anonymously through Ethicspoint: www.ethicspoint.com

- REPORTING: While I want you to feel comfortable coming to me with issues you may be struggling with or concerns you may be having, please be aware that there are some reporting requirements that are part of my job at Santa Clara University.
- For example, if you inform me of an issue of harassment, sexual violence, or discrimination, I will keep the information as private as I can, but I am required to bring it to the attention of the institution's EEO and Title IX Coordinator. If you inform me that you are struggling with an issue that may be resulting in, or caused by, traumatic or unusual stress, I will likely inform the campus Student Care Team (SCU CARE).
- ❖ If you would like to reach out directly to the Student Care Team for assistance, you can contact them at www.scu.edu/osl/report. If you would like to talk to the Office of EEO and Title IX directly, they can be reached at 408-554-3043 or by email at bguthrie@scu.edu. Reports may be submitted online through www.scu.edu/osl/report or anonymously through Ethicspoint: www.ethicspoint.com. Additionally, you can report incidents or complaints to the Office of Student Life (OSL), Campus Safety Services, and local law enforcement. For confidential support, contact the Counseling and Psychological Services office (CAPS), the YWCA, or a member of the clergy (for example, a priest or minister).

Finally, please be aware that if, for some reason, our interaction involves a disruptive behavior, a concern about your safety or the safety of others, or potential violation of University policy, I will inform the Office of Student Life. The purpose of this is to keep OSL apprised of incidents of concern, and to ensure that students can receive or stay connected to the academic support and student wellness services they need.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY AND PLAGIARISM POLICY:

All Students in this Course are Encouraged Greatly to take the University Honor Pledge

- The study of religion and sacred scriptures/religious literatures are older than the texts themselves. As a result, there are very few genuinely "unique" or "original" ideas. Therefore, it is the expectation that all written, presented, and discussed work as it pertains to this course reference the "chain of thought" the student is utilizing to make her/his point. Being able to articulate your thought from the thoughts of others is at the heart of academic integrity.
- Footnotes at the bottom of the page and a formal bibliography at the end of an essay are required. This course requires footnotes in Turabian/Chicago style. Failure to cite properly will result in an automatic rewrite.
- see eturabian com
