Lay Faith Sharing Groups

Are you interested in joining a lay faith sharing group at JST? Groups meet weekly to share in prayer, to build community, to discern how to live out the Gospel in our lives, and to support one another as we study, learn, and continue to grow into ministers for the Church of today and tomorrow. If interested contact Andrew Shahamiri (ashahamiri@scu.edu)

Bridge Courses

Remember that JST is offering these 1 and 1.5 credit courses to round out ministry formation. The upcoming classes are:

Dillenberger Lecture in Art History

"Abess as Alter Christus: Delineating Female Sanctity in Spain and Spanish America." Cristina Cruz González, associate professor of art history, Oklahoma State University. Using examples from Spain, Mexico, and Guatemala, this talk explores various pictorial strategies for capturing and performing an alter Christus status in a transatlantic Spanish world. Often neglected by scholars who tend to examine the mystical Bride of Christ imagery, González discusses the female imitatio Christi and the ecclesiastical pretense exhibited by several early modern holy women in Spain and Spanish America.

Thursday, Oct. 12 | 5-7pm | Flora Lamson Hewlett Library, reception following in CARE's Doug Adams Gallery
