SCU Teaching Opportunity for JST Students

"ELSJ 22: Solidarity with the Community" is a 2-unit, P/NP non-departmental Arts & Sciences seminar. The course itself involves themes of social justice, civic engagement, deepening perspectives, and vocational discernment. Also, enrolled undergraduate students are required to engage in community-based learning in the local community as part of the course experience. Ideally, the instructor would have some background with community-based learning pedagogy.

This teaching opportunity is posted on SCU's careers page in "faculty openings": <https://www.scu.edu/hr/careers/>
