Finals Study Break!

The GTU library will host fun and de-stressing events in the library during finals week.

Mon. 5/15, 12-12:45pm, Yoga. Lily Manderville (CARE Programs Manager) will lead a yoga session. Comfortable work clothes recommended, yoga mats provided. There will be coloring pages available before and after class.

Tues. 5/16, 9am-noon, Be crafty. Bring a project you've been too busy to work on all semester—such as knitting, crocheting, a scrapbook or anything else!

Wed. 5/17, all day, Sharpen your brain. There will be tables for jigsaw puzzles, crosswords, sudoku, jumble, and more.

Thurs. 5/18, 9am-noon, Play some games. Bring in your own or enjoy our board games. We will be debuting the Luther game for serious players, but most will be fun and simple.

Fri. 5/19, 1pm, Laugh. Join for a showing of the satirical British comedy, Life of Brian.

These events will be held in the Collaborative Learning Space of the GTU Library (2nd Floor) and are open to all!

My Will and My Life

A new play about Fr. Mychal Judge, OSF, chaplain of the NYC Fire Department and first registered death of 9/11, written by Fr. Harry Cronin, CSC, through a grant from the GTU Center for the Arts.

Premieres on Tuesday, May 2 | 7:00pm | Badè Museum, PSR

The Annual Gathering for the Adult Catechumenate:

Turning Hearts toward God: The Lenten Practice of Baptismal Preparation

How does the Spirit turn our hearts toward God? How do faith communities engage those to be baptized in this turning? What maps and patterns of practice guide it? Come hear from the following three speakers to stimulate reflection: Team RCIA’s, Nick Wagner and Diana Macalintal; Presbyterian, Paul Galbreath; and Episcopalian, Donald Schell.

Learning the Way of the Adult Catechumenate

A full training event will be held with the Annual Gathering of catechumenate practitioners. This intensive immersion into the highly experiential process is the primary way the process of the catechumenate is understood and embraced. Training is geared for congregational teams new to the Adult Catechumenate or for new team members. Space is limited, and scholarships are available to seminarians and first call pastors.

Tuesday June 27– Thursday June 29 | Mercy Center in Burlingame, California

For more information and to register for these events visit www.journeytobaptism.org. Deadline to register is May 10.

What Does it Mean to be Catholic?: Call for Papers on Catholic Identity

The Lane Center at USF invites people working in ministry in a variety of Catholic contexts to contribute a short essay (3000 words) to a multi-volume series on Catholic identity. Essays should highlight challenges, questions, tensions, and/or opportunities that they experience around Catholic identity.

Prospective authors with questions may email Erin Bringham, Ph.D., Director of the Joan and Ralph Lane Center for Catholic Studies and Social Thought at embringham@usfca.edu

Essays are due August 15, 2017. For details see <http://www.usfca.edu/lane-center/call-for-papers>
