THEOCOM 18: Discerning Big Data in Light of the Gospel

THEOCOM is in its 7th year as a gathering of theologians and other scholars on the topic of digital culture and communication. This year's topic is big data and what implications it may hold for theology and ministry. Presentations and facilitated conversations will center around these questions: what is the impact of massive data accumulation on communities of faith? What key ethical issues does big data highlight? What does it mean to be human in an age of massive data accumulation? What practical ways can communities of faith benefit from big data? Register here.

July 22-24, 2018 | Santa Clara University

Magis submission deadline

This is the last Magis until fall semester. Enjoy your summer!

GTU & COMMUNITY EVENTS / CONFERENCES

Spirituality in a Time of Disruption

CLGS Andrew Ramer Archive Collection

The Center for LGBTQ and Gender Studies in Religion (CLGS) warmly welcomes you to a reception in honor of our expanding interfaith archives, and the creation of the Andrew Ramer Collection. A noted Jewish author and liturgist, an artist before he was a writer, the collection includes several of his illustrated books, sketchbooks and paintings, along with handwritten letters going back to childhood. The reception will feature a reading by Ramer.

Sunday, May 13 | 7:00-8:30pm | Badè Museum at Pacific School of Religion, 1798 Scenic Avenue

Angelology: A Live Panel on Millenarianism

In conjunction with Berkeley Repertory Theatre's presentation of Tony Kushner's Angels in America, this panel will explore critical religious and social themes from the play through both Jewish and Mormon lenses. Find more info here. In addition, you can join us for a special GTU night at the June 10 performance of Angels in America. Free tickets will be available for students and alumni while supplies last. Contact care@gtu.edu to get on the list for a pair of free tickets!

Monday, May 14 | 6:30pm | Berkeley Repertory's Peet's Theatre, 2025 Addison Street

Conversation and Service with Fr. Ismael Moreno, SJ, "Fr. Melo"

Join the University of San Francisco's Ministry staff for light refreshments and conversation with Fr. Melo, a Jesuit priest and human rights activist, a leading voice in the struggle to defend the people and land of Honduras. RSVP: um@usfca.edu

Monday, May 14 | 6:00-9:00pm | USF, Toler 122, Romero Room

All are welcome to a service of accompaniment and blessing for Fr. Melo, before his journey back to Honduras.

Tuesday, May 15 | 7:00-9:00pm | St. John's Presbyterian Church, 2727 College Ave

Third Thursday at BAMPFA, Free Admission

Drawing primarily upon historical graphic works in the BAMPFA collection, Agony in Effigy: Art, Truth, Pain, and the Body explores the ways in which physical violence is represented in art through visual cues using an impassioned language of gestures. After gathering in the Berkeley Art Museum & Pacific Film Archive lobby at 4:30pm, check in with a CARE staff member for a complimentary ticket. RSVP on Eventbrite.

Thursday, May 17 | 4:30pm | The UC Berkeley Art Museum and Pacific Film Archive, 2155 Center Street

Healing WELL Field Ed. Placement or Service Position

The Healing WELL is looking for a Spiritual Life Discussion Facilitator. The program runs Wednesday mornings from 10:15-11:15am, and draws from the wisdom and practices of diverse spiritual traditions. In the group, participants reflect on and discuss themes that deepen their understanding of connection to themselves and the broader community. In the past, they've read quotes from Pema Chodron, Alice Walker, Eckhart Tolle, and the Tao Te Ching. Topics have included joy as a spiritual practice, our connection to nature, and adversity. Opportunity starts May 23, but student may observe current facilitator (Joe Wotawa, SJ) in action on Wednesdays till then. For more information, contact Kit Solowy at ksolowy@healingwellsf.org, 415-500-2099. Location: 476 Eddy Street, San Francisco.

Sanctuary: Caminando Hacia la Libertad

Join the Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity for a 2-day convening that serves to strengthen and organize people of faith in Sanctuary work across California to respond in an increasingly dangerous climate for immigrant communities in 2018. Learn tools and best practices to create a more prophetic path towards liberation, caminando hacia la libertad, where all can live with dignity and wholeness. Register here. For more info: sanctuary@im4humanintegrity.org, 510-948-7899
