Altarcito Set Up

During the month of November, we pray in a special way for all those who have gone before us. Inspired by the Mexican custom of the altarcito (little altar) for the Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead), as well as the honoring of the ancestors that we practice in many of our cultural traditions throughout the world, we will set up an Altar of Remembrance in the Chapel, near the western entrance. All are invited to bring objects and images recalling deceased loved ones, as well as devotional images of favorite saints, as we invoke the “cloud of witnesses” in our prayer and worship. You may also inscribe names of departed loved ones in the Book of Remembrance. Contact Kate Barush, kbarush@scu.edu, or Teresa

Montes, mmonteslara@scu.edu, if you would like to help with set up during Reading Week:
