Tuesday Presentation: Christopher Wemp

Christopher Wemp will present his MTS project, in which he proposes a new model to certify liturgical musicians that is time and cost effective. He will present this model in the form of a stackable blended learning certificate program. He will also share examples of new liturgical music resources available on his new album, "Instruments of Peace," available at <https://christopherwemp.bandcamp.com/>.

Tuesday, November 28 | 6:45 pm | Gesù Chapel

JST Holiday Celebration: the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

During Mass, a children's group from St. Patrick's Parish in West Oakland will dramatize the story of the apparitions of Mary to Juan Diego. Following Mass, all are invited for a festive holiday meal of tamales, with piñata fun for the children.

Tuesday, December 12 | 5:15 pm | Gesù Chapel and Manresa Lounge

Happy Thanksgiving!

"Gratitude unlocks the fullness of life. It turns what we have into enough, and more."

—Melody Beattie

May we know deep gratitude for all that we have and for each other.

Immigration Vigil

The Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity has a monthly vigil every 1st Saturday of the month. This interreligious prayer vigil chooses to pray for a commitment of solidarity with our immigrant neighbors who are impacted by oppressive systemic structures that criminalize them, and is a witness of their faith and hope. It is held outside of the Contra Costa Detention Center. You are encouraged to dress warmly and to bring a noise maker as the vigil ends with a moment of noise so that people can hear our witness. If you desire to participate with others from JST, contact melamb@scu.edu
Saturday, December 2 | 11 am - 12 pm | 5555 Giant Highway, Richmond
