The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s Vision of Nonviolent Resistance:

What is Dr. King's influence today? What should it be?

Santa Clara-Stanford Conflict Resolution Workshop and SCU Office of Diversity and Inclusion present this workshop that will explore the evolution of The Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s understanding of nonviolence and consider the viability of nonviolence as a means to resolve conflict in our troubled times. Led by Aldo Billingslea (Professor of Theatre and Dance at SCU, former Associate Provost for Diversity and Inclusion), Jonathan D. Greenberg (scholar in residence at Stanford Law School's Gould Center for Conflict Resolution), and Margaret M. Russell (Professor of Law and Associate Provost of Diversity and Inclusion at SCU). Suggested Readings: "Letter from Birmingham Jail" and "The Social Organization of Nonviolence." Lunch provided.

Immigration Vigil

The Interfaith Movement for Human Integrity has a monthly vigil every 1st Saturday of the month. This interreligious prayer vigil chooses to pray for a commitment of solidarity with our immigrant neighbors who are impacted by the oppressive systemic structures that criminalize them, and is a witness of their faith and hope. Held outside of the Contra Costa Detention Center, you are encouraged to dress warmly and to bring a noise maker as the vigil ends with a moment of noise so that people can hear our witness. If you desire to carpool with others from JST, contact Miriam Noriega at m1noriega@scu.edu.

Saturday, December 2 | 11 am - 12 pm | 5555 Giant Highway, Richmond
