THE MAGIS

Jesuit School of Theology of Santa Clara University

Liturgy News

The Wednesday 5:15pm Mass will be celebrated in Spanish on alternating Wednesdays for the remainder of the semester. If you are interested in lecturing, please contact jstliturgy@scu.edu

The next Spanish Mass is Wednesday, December 14th at 5:15pm

You are welcome to a celebration of the Divine Liturgy of St. John Chrysostom of the Melkite Greek Orthodox Church

The liturgy will be served by Fr. Sebastian Carnazzo, pastor of St. Elias Melkite Greek Catholic in Los Gatos. He will be accompanied by cantors and parishioners from St. Elias as well as Fr. Christopher Hadley, S.J. of the JST Faculty. Come celebrate the Eucharist in the Byzantine rite with us in Berkeley as a special part of Advent this year. A potluck in the adjacent Compania Lounge will follow. Email Fr. Hadley with questions chadley@scu.edu.

Religion and Culture Lecture Series: Legal Landscapes and Contracting Worlds in James Welch's Fools Crow with Beth Piatote, Associate Professor of Native American Studies, UC Berkeley

Published in 1986, Welch's historical novel is set in Montana in the late nineteenth century, and deals significantly with U.S. military and settler encroachment on Pikuni (Blackfeet) lands and communities. This lecture tracks representations of visual practices, particularly dreaming, in opening up alternative spaces where Pikuni individuals can traverse and negotiate various contractual agreements with spiritual and/or non-human powers.

Tuesday, December 6th | 7pm | JST Chapel

An Advent Moment of Reflection through Art - facilitated by Kate Barush, Anh Tran, SJ, and Kevin O'Brien, SJ

We invite JST students, faculty and staff to a conversation on the representation of race in historic and contemporary portrayals of Jesus Christ and the Virgin Mary. Please find an image that you find compelling, prayerful, problematic, moving (or any combination of the above) to introduce and discuss in a casual seminar format. Topics of discussion may include (but are not limited to) art as a reflection of culture, as a powerful tool of social discourse and/or change, and broader issues of representation(s) and the Catholic/religious imagination. Please send your image to Prof. Barush by Friday, December 2.

Tuesday, December 6th | 4pm | Loyola Room
