Position: Liturgical Accompanist, Student Life and Formation

Department Description:

The Student Life office of the Jesuit School of Theology oversees co-curricular programs and fosters the community life of the school in support of student learning and formation. The office oversees liturgy, which lies at the heart of JST’s community life and its mission of theological education and formation for scholarship and ministry.

Hours

Approximately 3-4 hours per week. More time required for special celebrations such as Mass of Gathering and Commencement Mass. Must be available for Tuesday evening 5:15 p.m. school liturgies.

Pay: $15.59/hour.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

Under the supervision of the Assistant Dean of Students and in collaboration with the Liturgy Committee and Music Coordinator, serves as accompanist for liturgy at JST.

- Accompany weekly Tuesday liturgies as well as special liturgies including Mass of Gathering each semester, Commencement Mass in May, and other celebrations.
- Rehearse with musicians for Tuesday evening liturgies and special celebrations.
- Collaborate with Music Coordinator, Liturgical Coordinator, and others involved in liturgy.
- Accompanist could serve as Music Coordinator depending on skills, interest, and availability. See separate job description for Music Coordinator.

Qualifications

- Genuine interest in liturgical music and liturgical spirituality.
- Ability to accompany Mass and other liturgies at piano, by reading scores and chord sheets.
- Knowledge and experience of contemporary liturgical music preferred.

To apply:

Send resume, with cover letter expressing interest and relevant qualifications and experience, to Paul Kircher, Assistant Dean of Students, at pkircher@scu.edu.