

WHY PRESENT? CEPI & NASPP SYMPOSIUM

Presenting at this event is a valuable opportunity to showcase your expertise, enhance your professional brand, and connect with industry leaders. Share your insights with an engaged audience, gain recognition as a trusted voice in equity compensation, and expand your professional growth.

FOR QUESTIONS, PLEASE CONTACT CEPI@SCU.EDU

GET STARTED

Submit a speaking proposal to showcase your expertise and gain visibility as a thought leader in the equity compensation field!

PROPOSAL GUIDELINES

The Request for Proposals (RFP) window is open from January 8 to February 12. Each organization may submit up to four proposals, and individuals may participate in multiple submissions across organizations. Panels typically include three to four speakers. Proposals should feature innovative, timely topics relevant to equity compensation and are encouraged to include diverse perspectives through co-presenting. Sales pitches, promotional content or product training are strictly prohibited in presentation materials.

SPEAKER BENEFITS

Speakers receive complimentary registration at the event. Presenting provides a unique platform for professional visibility, brand recognition, and networking, helping you demonstrate thought leadership and influence in the industry.

SUPPORT & NEXT STEPS

Our team is here to provide guidance and resources to help you craft a compelling proposal. Submit your speaking proposal to showcase your expertise, gain recognition as an industry leader, and join a premier event that combines cutting-edge insights, expert guidance, and unmatched networking opportunities.

LEAVEY EXECUTIVE CENTER
SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY

CERTIFIED EQUITY
PROFESSIONAL INSTITUTE

JULY 21, 2026

naspp
National Association of Stock Plan Professionals