

Santa Clara University
Broncos Entrepreneurs Advising Clinic Hours (B.E.A.C.H.)
Non-Engagement and Disclaimer

1. The business advisors and advising attorneys participating in SCU's B.E.A.C.H. Clinic will attempt to answer your business and/or legal questions. However, neither the business advisor and/or advising attorney talking with you in a particular advising session, nor the clinic itself are representing you in your matter, and no business advisor, attorney, or the clinic itself will become your representative or legal counsel. Once you sign this form, it will apply to all future advising sessions until or unless you tell us you no longer want to agree.
2. The business advisors and advising attorneys participating in SCU's B.E.A.C.H. Clinic will not provide services beyond the consultation in a particular advising session. Advisors, including advising attorneys, will not be available for further consultation beyond a particular advising session.
3. Any business or legal information or advice provided is solely the opinion of the business advisor or participating attorney.
4. If it becomes clear to the business advisor or advising attorney that advising you will create a conflict of interest, your advising session with that business advisor or advising attorney will end and you will be advised by another available advisor, if possible, instead.
5. The business advisors and advising attorneys participating in SCU's B.E.A.C.H. Clinics are not endorsed nor employed by the host organization at whose facility the clinic is being held.

Please know that the contents of your meeting will be kept confidential.

I understand and consent to the above statements.
