ACADEMIC HONORS

BETA GAMMA SIGMA | This national business honor society, was founded in 1913. The Santa Clara University chapter was founded in 1955. The mission of Beta Gamma Sigma is to encourage and honor academic achievement in the study of business and personal and professional excellence. Membership is offered to students who show promise of success in the field of business and rank in the top 10 percent of their senior class.

LEAVEY SCHOLARS PROGRAM | This program offers special opportunities for the top 10 to 15% undergraduate business students who have established a record of excellence in their Santa Clara studies. Leavey Scholars are invited to enroll in honors sections of selected business courses that are especially rigorous and academically challenging.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

CLASP | This program offers students an opportunity to examine, reflect, and act upon the issues presented by a triple bottom line approach to business management. Special events, hikes and excursions to natural treasures, and interactions with sustainability professionals who exemplify best practices in sustainable business and public leadership, will serve as sources of inspiration and knowledge.

LSB COMMUNITY FELLOWS PROGRAM | Talented and committed upper division majors are placed in paid, year-long internships at local nonprofit and government organizations. Fellows enroll in a year-long seminar to explore issues of social justice, economic inequality and professional development.

NEIGHBORHOOD PROSPERITY INITIATIVE COURSE | This two quarter course provides opportunities for students to work directly with businesses, individuals and organizations in low-income neighborhoods in Silicon Valley. The goal of the NPI is to create economic opportunity in our challenged neighborhoods while offering a community-based learning experience to our Santa Clara undergraduate students.

PEER ADVISING PROGRAM | This program assists students on course requirements and regulations. A team of business students, trained and knowledgeable about LSB requirements, provide information to first year students on how to use Santa Clara’s many advising resources and materials.
CENTERS & INSTITUTES

CENTER FOR FOOD INNOVATION & ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Center for Food Innovation & Entrepreneurship (CFIE) offers undergraduate students the opportunity to learn and experience the innovative and entrepreneurial activities that are driving change in the food industry. Students can take several courses through the Center, including an annual immersive study course that fulfills the University’s ELSJ requirement. CFIE also sponsors an undergraduate minor (Sustainable Food Systems), a pathway (Feeding the World), and hosts a variety of speakers and events. Students have the opportunity to intern with food companies and nonprofits, conduct research with the support of CFIE fellowships, and learn about innovative food companies through field trips.

For more information see www.scu.edu/business/cfie.

CIOCCA CENTER FOR INNOVATION & ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Santa Clara University’s Ciocca Center for Innovation and Entrepreneurship is an on-campus resource that introduces and encourages the Entrepreneurial Mindset. With experiential programs accessible to all students, across disciplines - and faculty, staff and alumni - Ciocca Center prepares future innovators and leaders with full access to possibilities and opportunities that inspire and empower.

For more information see www.scu.edu/cioccacenter.

THE RETAIL MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

The Retail Management Institute provides undergraduate students with the minor in retail studies and the skills needed to succeed in the changing retail industry. Open to all SCU undergraduate students, the minor prepares students for a diverse set of roles including e-commerce, buying, merchandising, planning and allocation, digital marketing, and supply chain management.
