

MOBI PARTNERS

The world's leading provider of free online entrepreneurial education specifically designed for you.

MOBI partners with educational institutions, vocational training programs, community organizations, NGOs, non-profits, and other organizations around the country and throughout the world to provide free entrepreneurial learning with customized business fundamentals adapted to the opportunities and needs of specific groups.

Thanks to our founders Phil and Peggy Holland, and their generous legacy gift, MOBI is free, for everyone, forever. Our goal in reaching out to you is to investigate whether a partnership with MOBI would be beneficial to you and complement your current programs.

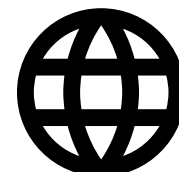

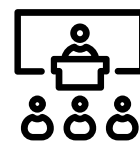

Why Partner with MOBI?

- Inspire and empower people to pursue careers in business and business ownership.
- Enhance existing classes/programs/offerings by adding a comprehensive entrepreneurial curriculum, or offer as a new program.
- Provide self-paced curriculum/courses without prerequisites or time limitations.
- Choose from 30 different sessions to create a customized course.
- Offer online, in-person, or through a hybrid approach using both.
- Create a branded course experience with your page, your logo, your organization.
- Add content and resources that reflect your needs, wants, region, and opportunities.
- Monitor students and their progress with teaching and management capabilities.
- Build opportunities for engagement with fellow students, business mentors, and community members by offering an entrepreneurship curriculum.
- Reward achievement with a Certificate of Completion provided by MOBI/Santa Clara University co-branded with your organization.
