

MISC.

THE GREEK GAZETTE

ROOM 25

A Day in the Life of a God

Classifieds

Vacation Getaways

Dear Oracle

Dear Oracle,
Hi, my name is Polydorus. I'm a sophomore. My parents and the rest of my family are not very smart and they get me mad they often make my food. There is food in my school but none being healthy. Can you please tell me how I can get food at these levels schools when I want to tell them for what they did to me.

From Polydorus

Weather Forecast

Good Morning!
This is today's weather. It's a sunny day with a high of 75 and a low of 55. The forecast for the rest of the week is sunny with a high of 75 and a low of 55. It's a beautiful day and a great way to start the week. Remember to get your sunscreen on and to stay hydrated. Have a great day!

Cartoons

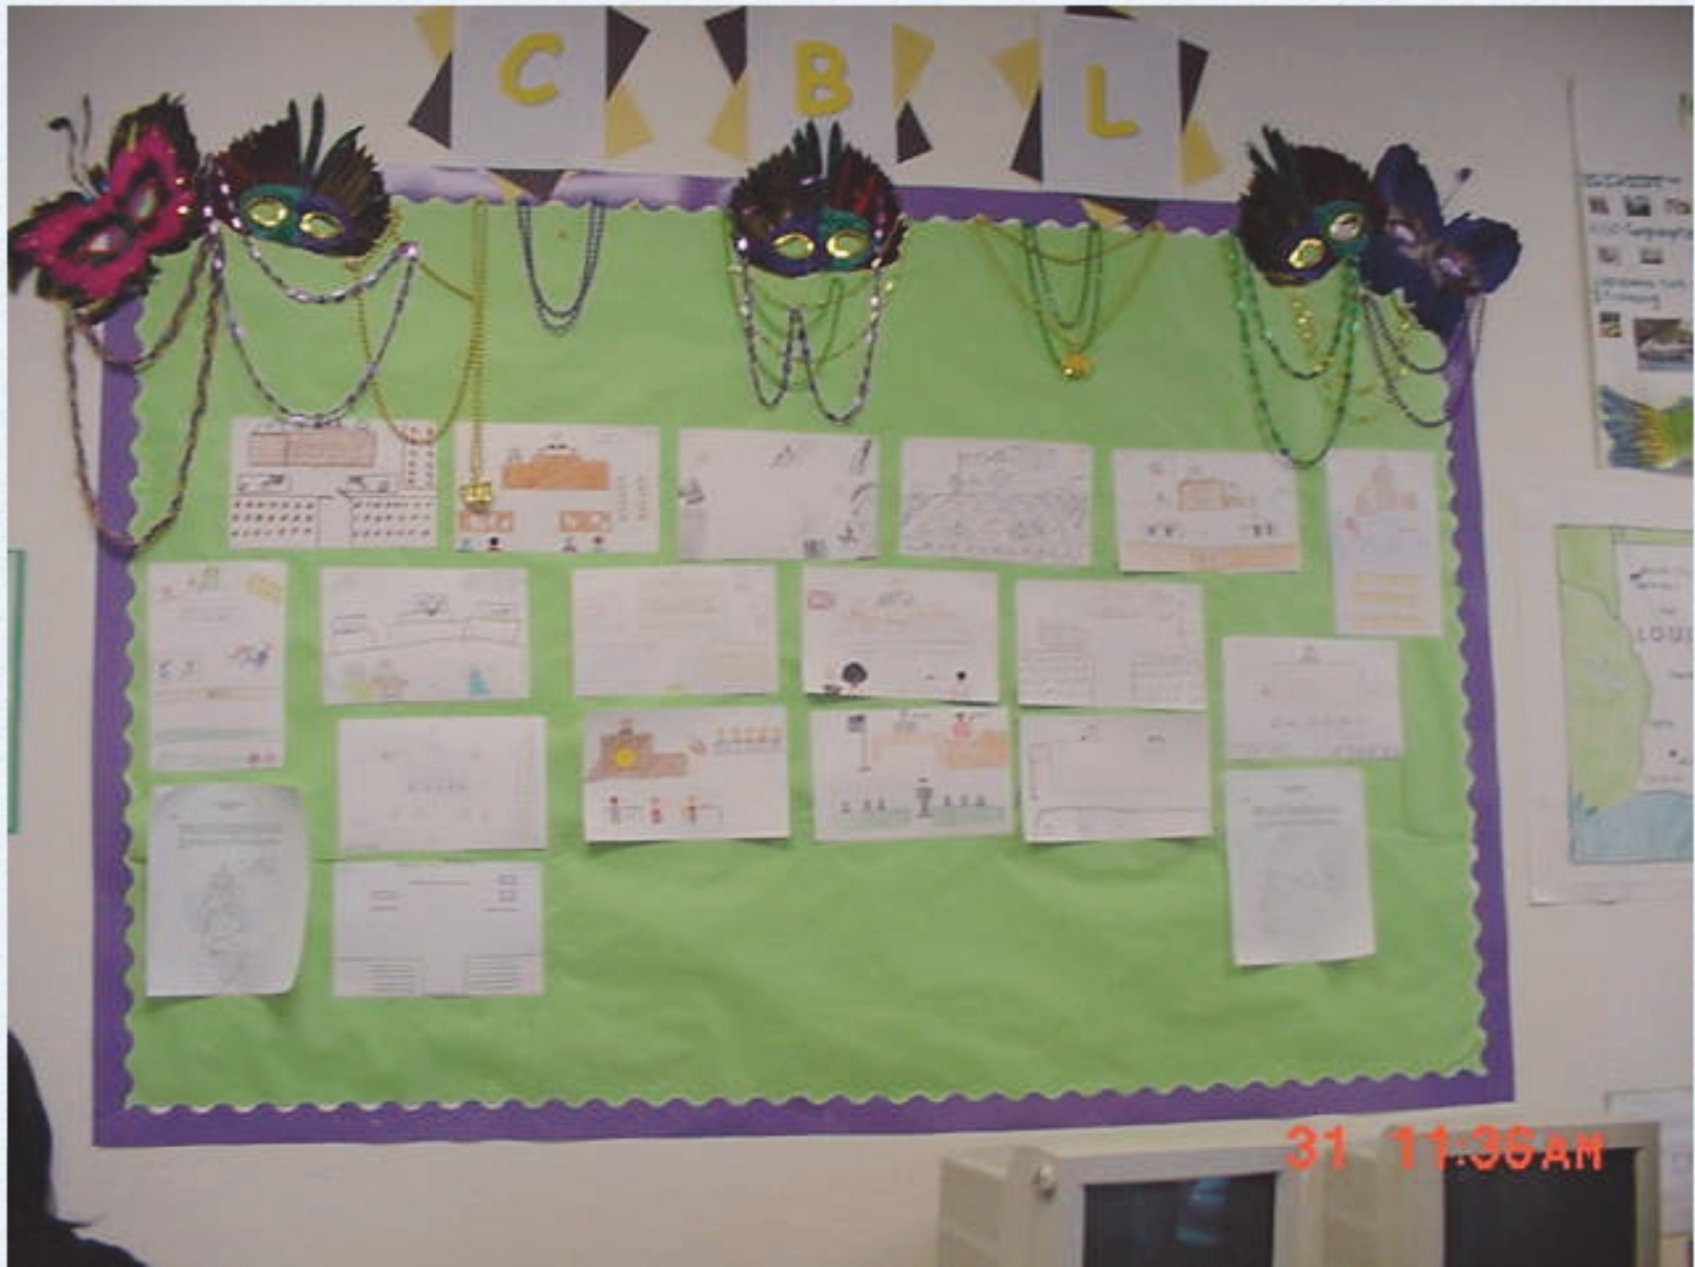

Sports

COURTESY OF THE GAZETTE

THE CIRCUIT

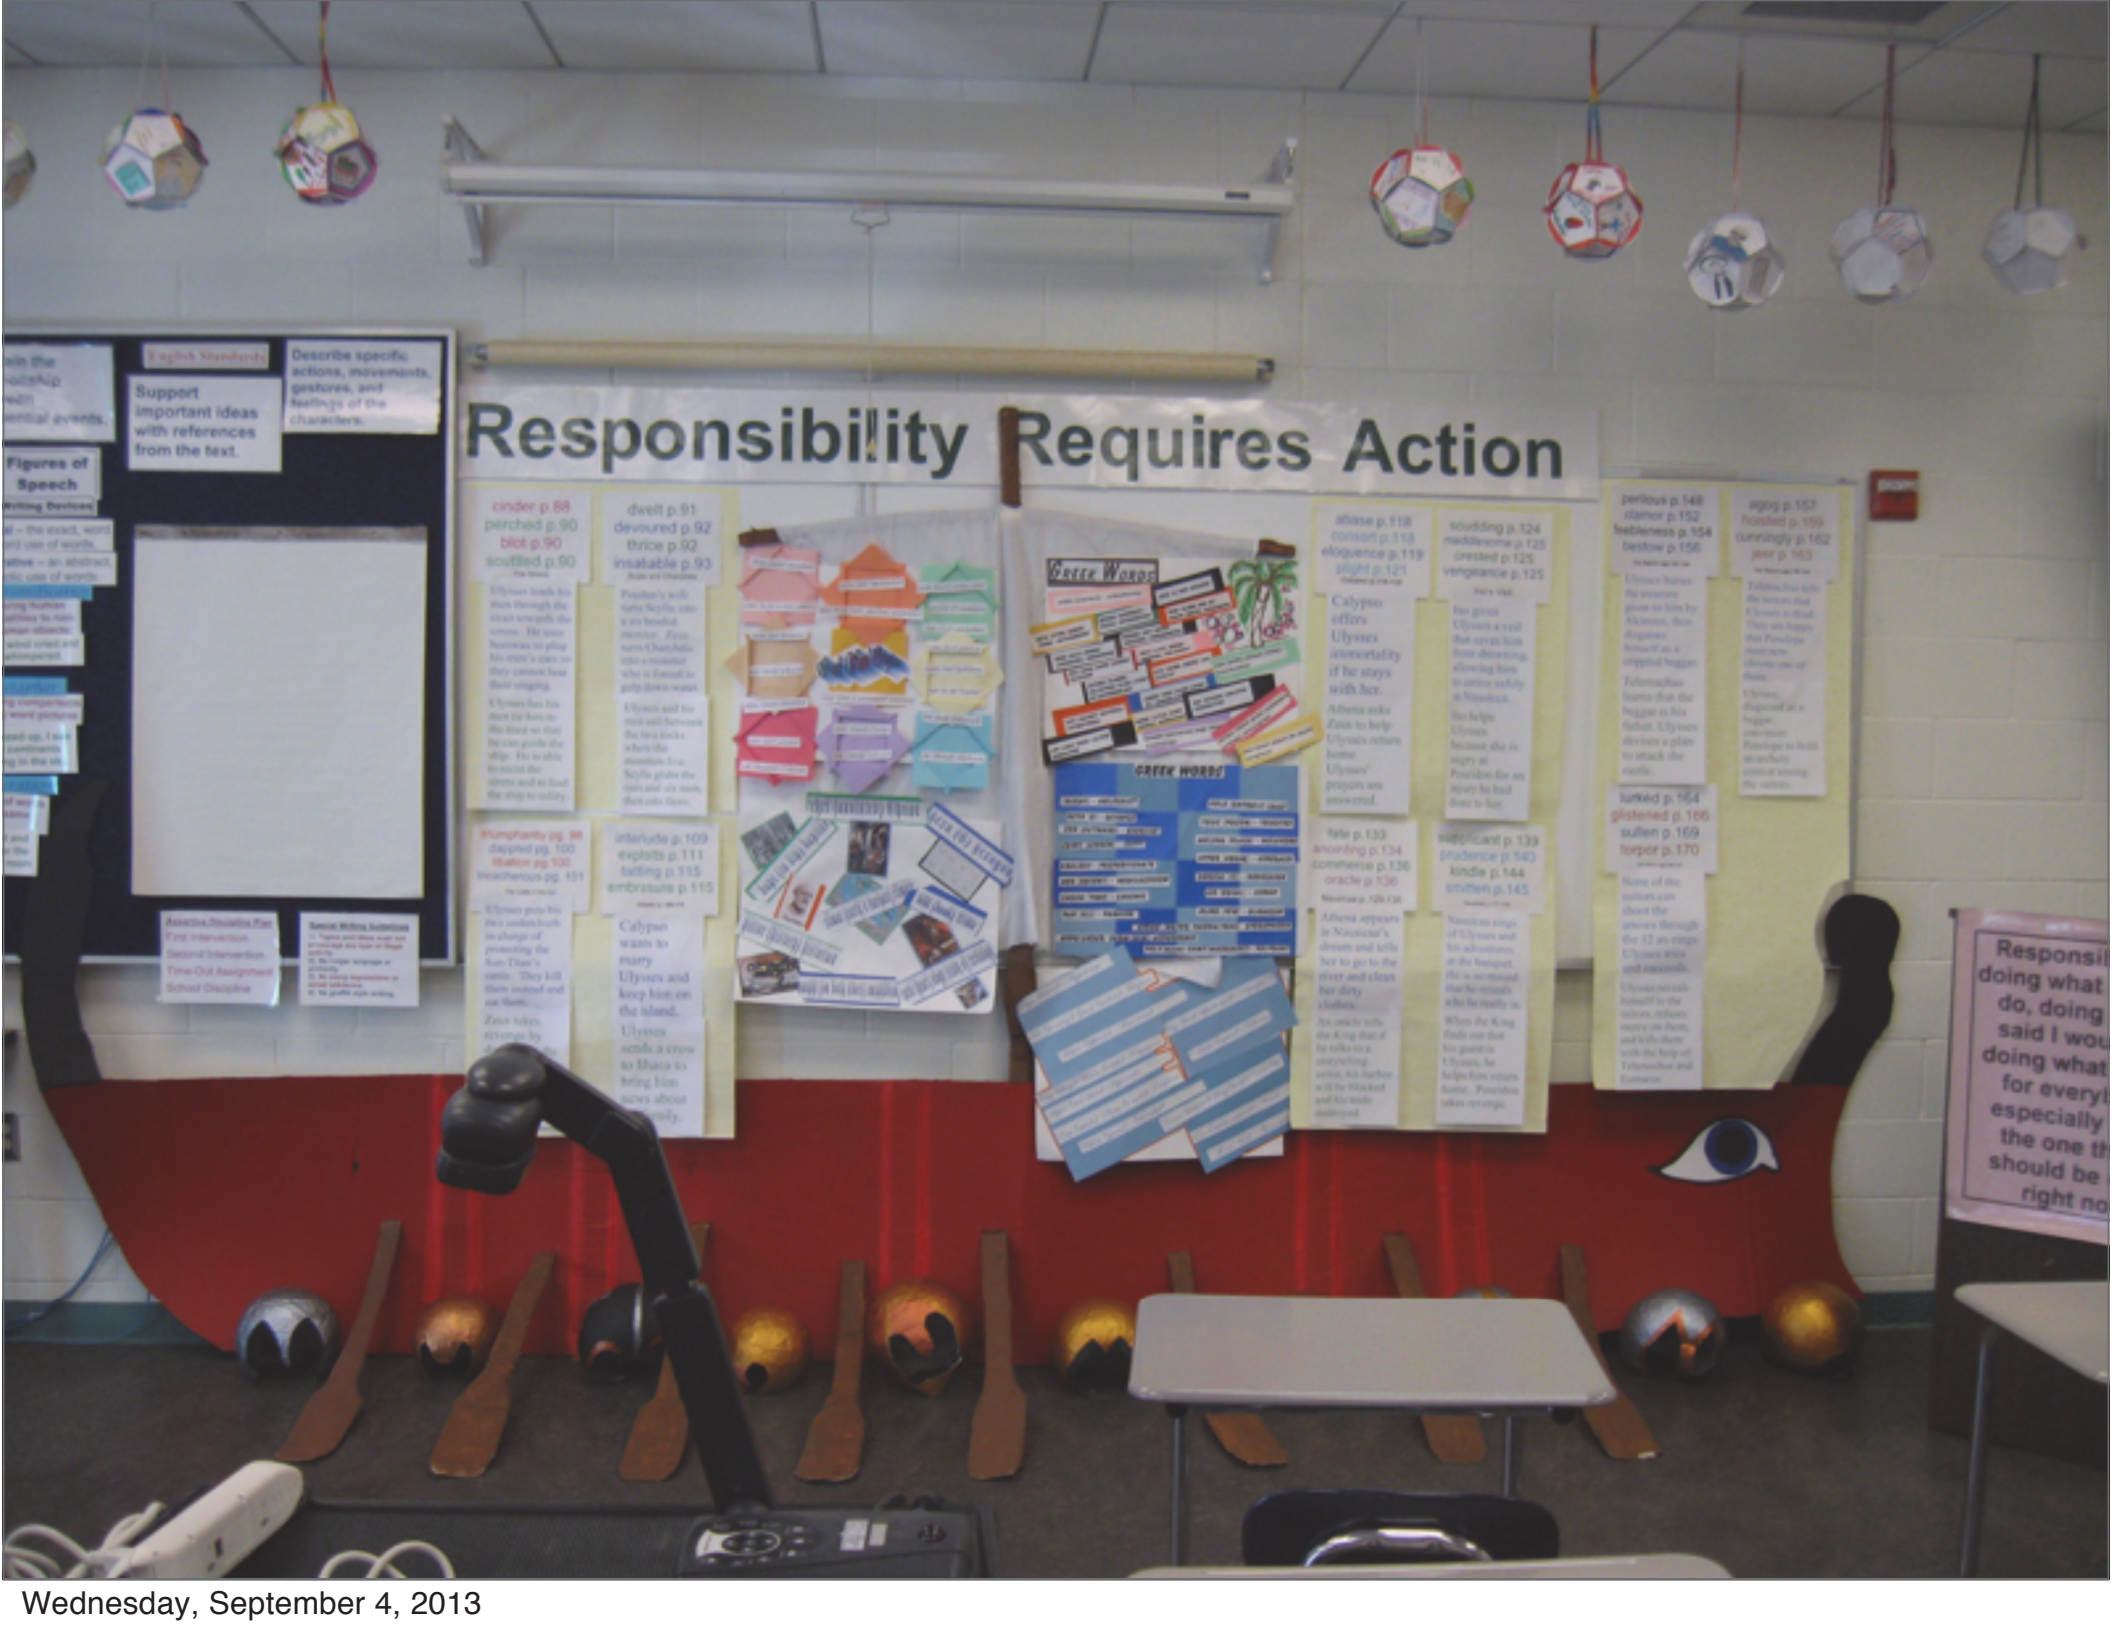

31 11:36 AM

Wednesday, September 4, 2013

Responsibility Requires Action

cinder p. 88
perched p. 90
blot p. 90
scuffed p. 90

Ulysses leads his men through the storm towards the coast. He soon becomes to play his mad's card as they cannot bear their ringing.

Ulysses has his men tie him to the mast so that he can guide the ship. He is able to resist the storm and to lead the ship to safety.

triumphantly pg. 96
disquinted pg. 100
blatant pg. 100
venchacious pg. 101

Ulysses gets his men underhull in charge of protecting the Sun Titan's cattle. They kill them instead and eat them.

Zeus takes revenge by sending a storm to bring him news about his only.

dwelt p. 91
devoured p. 92
thrice p. 92
insalubrious p. 93

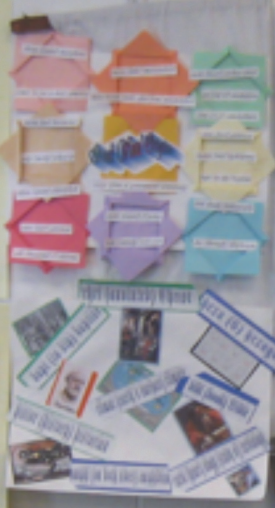

Proctor's wife says Scylla calls to a headless monster. Zeus turns Chariclo into a monster who is forced to help drive water.

Ulysses and his men sail between the two rocks when the monster, Scylla grabs the men and eats them.

interlude p. 109
exploits p. 111
battering p. 115
embassage p. 115

Calypso wants to marry Ulysses and keep him on the island.

Ulysses sends a crew to Ithaca to bring him news about his only.

GREY WORDS

abuse p. 118
consort p. 118
eloquence p. 119
sight p. 121

Calypso offers Ulysses immortality if he stays with her.

Athena asks Zeus to help Ulysses return home.

Ulysses' program are concerned.

GREY WORDS

able p. 133
averting p. 134
compromise p. 136
crackle p. 136

Athena appears in Nausicaa's dream and tells her to go to the river and clean her dirty clothes.

Zeus tells the King that if he talks to a meddling wife, his father will be shocked and his wife angered.

abuse p. 118
consort p. 118
eloquence p. 119
sight p. 121

Calypso offers Ulysses immortality if he stays with her.

Athena asks Zeus to help Ulysses return home.

Ulysses' program are concerned.

able p. 133
averting p. 134
compromise p. 136
crackle p. 136

Athena appears in Nausicaa's dream and tells her to go to the river and clean her dirty clothes.

Zeus tells the King that if he talks to a meddling wife, his father will be shocked and his wife angered.

scolding p. 124
meddlesome p. 125
crested p. 125
vengeance p. 125

Zeus tells Ulysses a veil that saves him from drowning, allowing him to arrive safely in Nausicaa.

Zeus helps Ulysses because she is angry at Poseidon for an injury he had done to her.

able p. 133
averting p. 134
compromise p. 136
crackle p. 136

Athena appears in Nausicaa's dream and tells her to go to the river and clean her dirty clothes.

Zeus tells the King that if he talks to a meddling wife, his father will be shocked and his wife angered.

perilous p. 148
clamor p. 152
bedliness p. 154
bestow p. 156

Ulysses leaves the women given to him by Alcinous. Then, disguised himself as a crippled beggar, Telemachus learns that the beggar is his father. Ulysses devises a plan to attack the castle.

able p. 133
averting p. 134
compromise p. 136
crackle p. 136

Athena appears in Nausicaa's dream and tells her to go to the river and clean her dirty clothes.

Zeus tells the King that if he talks to a meddling wife, his father will be shocked and his wife angered.

agog p. 157
hosted p. 159
cunningly p. 162
jeer p. 163

Ulysses tells the women that Ulysses is dead. They are happy that Penelope must now choose one of them.

Ulysses, disguised as a beggar, convinces Penelope to feed an archery contest among the suitors.

able p. 133
averting p. 134
compromise p. 136
crackle p. 136

Athena appears in Nausicaa's dream and tells her to go to the river and clean her dirty clothes.

Zeus tells the King that if he talks to a meddling wife, his father will be shocked and his wife angered.

Responsibility
doing what do, doing
said I would
doing what for every especially the one that should be right no

Ulysses

Ulysses

THE ADVENTURES OF ULYSSES

The adventures of Ulysses