

Community Standards & Student Conduct Code

Introduction

Welcome to Santa Clara University. Santa Clara's distinctive tradition expects from each of its community members an uncompromising commitment to excellence and to social responsibility that seeks to fashion a more humane and just society. Competence, conscience, and compassion are the cornerstones of our community values. To achieve our common goals, we must create a community environment that is shaped by its expressed values. The Student Handbook seeks to reflect the values of the community and unite them into a usable guide.

The Santa Clara University community includes students, faculty, staff, parents, alumni, neighbors, guests, and friends of the University. As a community, enriched persons of diverse backgrounds, we respect differences, encourage open dialogue, and commit to caring for all members of the community. Every member of the community serves as a representative to other members of our community, both on and off campus. Members of this community freely affiliate with the University and should be prepared to contribute to and abide by the standards set forth in this handbook.

Santa Clara University believes that the life of the University rests in the hands of each and every community member. Sharing this responsibility should lead all community members to make the most of their talents, to be sensitive to one another and work together, and to seek justice within and beyond the Santa Clara University community.

All community members are called upon to promote actions and behaviors that are consistent with the values of Santa Clara University and to confront, challenge, and respond to actions that are inconsistent with the established standards. This Student Handbook has been designed to frame your role within the Santa Clara University community. Every attempt has been made to provide a clear explanation of the standards, policies, and procedures that reflect the type of community that you are joining. Familiarizing yourself with the contents of this handbook is an investment of time that you will not regret.

Statement of Community Values

The Santa Clara University community is dedicated to the promotion of values consistent with academic and personal excellence. Choosing to join this community evidences your acceptance of these values.

As a member of this community, I will practice personal and academic integrity.

Living this value looks like:

- Being a “person of conscience,” a person who acts ethically, whose decisions reflect moral sensitivity, judgment, commitment, and courage
- Showing consistency in my beliefs, my words, and my actions personally and professionally
- Being honest, responsible, and accountable in my scholarly activities, making course work my top priority, and taking credit only for my own work
- Accepting responsibility for my own actions and holding others accountable for their actions

Living this value is inconsistent with:

- Failing to take responsibility for my behavior
- Engaging in dishonest behavior such as cheating or falsifying information
- Tampering with data systems or computer networks

As a member of this community, I will respect and care for myself, others, and their property.

Living this value looks like:

- Maintaining my health in mind, body, spirit, and soul
- Treating other people and the environment with dignity, as I expect to be treated
- Being a “person of compassion,” who stands with others in their need and takes action to help build a more just and humane world
- Recognizing and actively protecting the property rights of others in my apartment, neighborhood, residence hall, on campus, and in the surrounding community

Living this value is inconsistent with:

- Behaving in ways that cause others emotional distress, threaten or discourage the freedom, personal safety, and respect that all individuals deserve
- Hurting myself and others through the use or distribution of drugs or alcohol
- Creating a dangerous environment by tampering with safety equipment or smoke detectors

As a member of this community, I will value diversity and learn from diverse people, ideas, and situations.

Living this value looks like:

- Understanding that differences in gender, socioeconomic status, ethnic background, race, culture, religion, sexuality, physical abilities, and other differences are rich opportunities for learning about other people, the world, and myself

- Working to understand and overcome personal, institutional, and societal biases, injustices, prejudices, and stereotyping
- Being fair, assigning benefits and burdens to people according to consistent, equitable, and just criteria

Living this value is inconsistent with:

- Harassing or threatening other members of the community
- Using degrading language toward any person or toward members of a specific group
- Arguing or hampering my community's right to the communication of ideas and ideals just because they don't represent my own
- Validating unequal behavior toward a person because of gender, socioeconomic status, ethnic background, race, culture, religion, sexuality, physical abilities, and/or other differences

As a member of this community, I will seek, share, and contribute to the common good.

Living this value looks like:

- Basing my actions on the belief that my own good is inextricably bound to the good of the whole community
- Contributing my talents and participating fully in the life and events of the community
- Engaging in the open dialogue and deep communication necessary to create a real rather than a "pretend" community
- Showing careful stewardship of common space, property, and equipment

Living this value is inconsistent with:

- Not conveying a respect and responsibility for my University community
- Resisting learning about the perspectives shared by other community members
- Engaging in selfish or inconsiderate behavior

As a member of this community, I will be a leader-in-service to the campus and greater community beyond campus.

Living this value looks like:

- Seeking to understand not only "what is" but "what should be" and working actively to bring that about
- Making no decision without considering its effects on people who are poor, in need, and with the fewest resources
- Consistently role-modeling behavior reflective of the three Cs (Competence, Conscience, and Compassion)

Living this value is inconsistent with:

- Not valuing the efforts of community service activities

- Perceiving leadership as someone else's responsibility to the campus and outside community

Statement of Responsibilities and Standards of Conduct

A goal of Santa Clara University is to provide students with a general education so that they will acquire knowledge, skills, and wisdom to deal with and contribute to contemporary society in constructive ways. As an institution of higher education rooted in the Jesuit tradition, the University is committed to creating and sustaining an environment that facilitates not only academic development, but also the personal and spiritual development of its members. This commitment of the University encourages the greatest possible degree of freedom for individual choice and expression with the expectation that individual members of the community will:

- Be honest
- Demonstrate respect for oneself
- Demonstrate respect for others and property
- Demonstrate respect for the law and University standards, policies, and procedures, their administration, and the process for changing them

In keeping with this commitment, this Statement of Responsibilities and Standards of Conduct and related policies and procedures have been formulated to guarantee each student's freedom to learn and to protect the fundamental rights of others. The University administration has established standards, policies, and procedures that are necessary to achieve its objectives as a Catholic, Jesuit university. These standards, policies, and procedures are inclusive of the laws of the nation, the state of California, and the local community.

All members of the Santa Clara University community are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that is consistent with the goals of the institution and demonstrate respect for self, others, and their property. Students living off campus are members of this community and, as such, are representatives of the University to the community-at-large. In this regard, students living off campus maintain an equal measure of accountability to the values and expectations of all members of this community as identified in the Student Conduct Code.

Whether living in or traversing through the neighborhood, or parking in the streets, students are expected to adhere to the same high standards of conduct and behavior that are consistent with the students' developing role as responsible and accountable citizens and reflect well upon the Santa Clara University community.

Student Conduct Code

All members of the University community have a strong responsibility to protect and maintain an academic climate in which the fundamental freedom to learn can be enjoyed by all and where the rights and well-being of all members of the community are protected. To this end, certain basic regulations and policies have been developed to govern the conduct of all students as members of the University community.

The University reserves the right to review student conduct that occurs on and off campus when such behavior is inconsistent with these expectations and the Student Conduct Code. In addition, students are responsible for the actions of their guests and will be held accountable for any violations of University standards, policies, and procedures by a guest. Students should accompany their guests while on campus. If necessary, the University reserves the right to limit the guest privileges of a student.
