

SANTA CLARA UNIVERSITY
OFFICE OF THE PROVOST
TARGET DATES FOR TENURE AND PROMOTION REVIEW
2026-27

NO LATER THAN:

2025

Wednesday, Dec 10 Faculty Development/Faculty Affairs host prep session on petitioning for tenure and/or promotion to support faculty candidates (12:15-1:30pm, Executive Conference Room, St. Joe's 2nd floor).

2026

Wednesday, January 7 Faculty Development/Faculty Affairs host identical prep session on petitioning for tenure and/or promotion to support faculty candidates, identical to the session above (11:45am-12:45pm, Varsi 222).

Friday, January 16 Candidates who are requesting to submit an early application for tenure, or who are requesting to submit an application for promotion to full professor, must complete and submit this form no later than Thursday, January 16, 2026. Requests received after January 16, 2026 will not be accepted for this petition cycle. For those candidates for whom the petition is elective rather than required, you may withdraw your request up until April 1, 2026. Candidates electing an early tenure petition should consult with tenured members of their department and the dean to determine if an early application is advisable. Outside Interfolio, via form

Monday, March 2 The Candidate provides the department or process chair with a preliminary list of external referees and names of persons not to be contacted. The tenured faculty confirm the availability of candidate selections that are certain, and begin to identify and confirm department external referees if possible. This month, the tenured faculty will determine if one or more collaborator letters are needed to identify the nature, extent and quality of the candidate's contribution. Outside Interfolio, via email

Wednesday, March 18 The Provost meets with department and process chairs, College/school and University Rank and Tenure Committee members, and deans to review rank, tenure and promotion policies and procedures (12:00-1:00pm, Executive Conference Room, St. Joseph).

Wednesday, April 1 The Candidate provides the Dean and department or process chair with names of at least two external referees and names of persons not to be contacted (use this form). The form has a place to indicate the version of the discipline-specific standards the candidate elects to apply in their case. If the petition is elective, this is the final date by which the candidate may withdraw their request to petition (email facultyaffairs@scu.edu). Pre-MPR faculty who elect to withdraw will be required to submit an MPR in January 2027. Outside Interfolio, via email

April 1-15 The department or process chair notifies the candidate of the name(s) of collaborator(s) the tenured faculty would like to consult, so that the candidate can file a written objection with the chair regarding any of the names on the list. The tenured faculty subsequently finalize the list of collaborators and confirm that they are available to serve.

Wednesday, April 15 The Candidate provides the Dean and department or process chair with works to be evaluated and professional CV, as described in Guidelines and Requirements for Candidates. Outside Interfolio, via email

Wednesday, April 15	The department or process chair provides the Dean with names of two external referees who have agreed to serve and any collaborators the department has identified who are willing to write. The department or process chair will also notify the dean of any tenured faculty who are eligible to participate in the department review who, by virtue of their own collaborations with the scholarship or creative work of the candidate, might have a conflict of interest. The dean will determine how to manage the conflict and communicate any restrictions on participation with Faculty Affairs staff.	Outside Interfolio, via email
Thursday, April 16	The College or school Rank and Tenure Committee members may begin the process of electing a chair and assigning responsibilities, with attention to recusal rules (Faculty Handbook 3.4.4.4) and to the allowance for additional members and subcommittees if the caseload is eight or greater (Faculty Handbook 2.11.2.1). The Dean shares referee lists with school committees. Candidate materials sent to external referees are shared with school committees as well. Newly elected members for the following year may participate.
Tuesday, April 21	The Dean solicits evaluations from the four referees nominated by candidate and department/program, and from collaborators.	Outside Interfolio
