

Intramural Sports

Three Point Shootout

FOREWORD

The Intramural Sports Three Point Shootout is organized for the purpose of offering current Santa Clara University students, faculty and staff the opportunity to participate in an atmosphere of mutual respect and good sportsmanship. Captains are expected to familiarize themselves and their teammates with these rules and the policies within the Intramural Sports Handbook. Any disruptive or unsportsmanlike conduct can be cause for suspending an individual and/or team for the program. The program is based upon cooperation and mutual respect among players and student supervisors.

SAFETY CONSIDERATIONS AND INSURANCE COVERAGE

- Each player must have a signed “Release of Liability and Assumption of Risk for Use of Athletic Facilities and Programs” on file with the ACCESS office.
- Player safety is of foremost concern. This is enhanced by rule modification, staff training, and facility inspection.
- Any and all injuries should be reported immediately to an Intramural Sports Staff member on-site at the event.
- All jewelry should be removed prior to play.
- A player is not allowed to wear any equipment that, in the opinion of the Intramural Sports Staff, is unsafe or confusing (i.e. braces, sweatshirts, etc). Intramural Sports Staff will check for illegal or unsafe equipment before every game.
- Each participant is responsible for his/her own medical insurance coverage. Santa Clara University does not provide insurance to individuals for any injury incurred in Intramural Sports participation. The university also does not provide any services to prepare or maintain a player’s readiness to participate. One must bring their own athletic tape to prepare to play.
- In the case that a participant sustains an injury that causes bleeding:
 - The participant must exit the area of play until the bleeding has been stopped and the wound is bandaged.
 - If blood stains any part of the participant’s clothing, he or she may not return to the game until blood is no longer visible on the clothing.

SIGN-UPS

- The competition will take place at the Malley Center Basketball Court 1, the night of the Malley Bash.
- Sign-Ups will be ongoing from 9 p.m. until the conclusion of the first round.
- The first round will last from 9:30-10:45 p.m.
- Shooters will shoot in the order they sign up in, and will be called to shoot by the on-site IM Supervisor.
- Men and women will compete in separate competitions but they will be ongoing simultaneously.
- The finals will begin at 11 p.m.
- The top 10 highest scores will have an opportunity to shoot again for the championship.
- In the event that a qualifying shooter does not report to the finals, the next best shooter from the first round will be called. This will be done until there are 10 shooters.
- In the event of a tie in any round, with the exception of the determining the overall winner, the most balls made will be the tie-breaker. The only other tie-breaker is a shoot-off.

SHOOTING RULES AND REGULATIONS

- Five ball racks will be placed around the three point line; one at each corner, one at the top of the key and two on the elbow extended.
- Each rack will have 4 balls.
- The first three balls of the rack each count as 1 point if made with the final ball counting as 2 points (the “money ball”).
- The maximum score is 25 (15 regular shots + 5 “money balls”).
- Shooters will be given 60 seconds to complete his/her shots. All shots must be attempted behind the three point line. Shots attempted after time has expired or inside the three point line will not be counted.
- A referee will be present to watch the shooters feet.
- The men’s competition will shoot from the current NCAA men’s three point line while the women’s competition will shoot from the current NCAA women’s three point line.

CONDUCT

- The value of Intramural Sports is in playing, not in winning - so you, your team, and your fans are expected to behave in a sportsmanlike manner at all times, both on and off the field.
- Profanity, intimidation, abusive language, threats, fighting or other physical contact is not tolerated and will result in disciplinary action as defined below.
- Possession or consumption of alcohol or illegal substances is not allowed. Any individual suspected of being “under the influence” will be asked to leave the facility immediately. Bellomy Field, the Malley Center and Stanton Field are facilities where no alcoholic beverages are permitted.
- Officials are fellow SCU students and must be treated with respect at all times.
- All students participating in Intramural Sports will be held to the Student Conduct Code in the SCU Student Handbook for more detailed info please visit the Office of Student Life website at <http://www.scu.edu/governance/student/index.cfm>

Disciplinary action includes but is not limited to:

- Immediate participant ejection (must leave the facility within two minutes or game is forfeited)
- Ejected participant must meet with the Assistant Director of Recreation and/or Intramural Sports Coordinator staff.
- Two ejections within the intramural season (academic year) results in an automatic suspension from the program for that academic year. For example, if a participant is ejected from a flag football game & then a basketball game they may be suspended from all future play in the Intramural Sports program.
- Suspensions are a minimum two games (participant may not attend team’s games during the suspension).
- Possible referral to Office of Student Life and/or Campus Safety.

Appealing disciplinary action includes:

- A written request for reinstatement and a meeting with Assistant Director of Recreation and/or Intramural Sports Coordinators needs to be requested within 5 business days of the decision.
